There are two distinctively different "John & Marsha" blacklight routines in town -- the GEORGE LAFAYE & CO. in "C'est Magnifique" at the Aladdin and ERROL MANOFF'S "Fantasy Factory" in the Stardust's "Lido." WAYLAND AND MADAME SMASH AT SAHARA

Wayland Flowers and his Madame, now appearing in two cocktail shows at 8 p.m. and 12 midnight in the Congo Showroom of Del Webb's Sahara Hotel, may not quite be household names yet, but they soon will be when "Madame's Place," a new syndicated television series premieres this fall. And Madame's going to love it.

She's such a raunchy wit she had the nerve to tell costar Abbe Lane on opening night that two glamorous sex symbols in the Congo Showroom was one too many! Of course, the audience disagreed and loved them both. Since Wayland brought one of his best friends to this Sahara engagement (Abbe) Madame was not to be outdone and brought two of her best friends, the earthy and street-wise Miss Jiffy and the outlandish Crazy Mary about whom Madame says, "A lot of people have thought about going Crazy. Well, Mary has done something about it."

Abbe Lane is one of the most thoroughly professional stars in show business today. The proof is the seemingly effortless way she treats a great song, whether it's contemporary Boz Skaggs or classical Gershwin. Her extensive Broadway experience is readily evident as she creates characters like the lovable Ruby Gonzales, even to the extent of using wigs and costumes.

When she belts out her tribute to Flo Ziegfeld and his famous "Follies," Abbe Lane becomes a torch singer to match the best of them.

Don't miss an exciting evening of comedy and song with Wayland and his characters and Miss Abbe Lane. Call 735-4242 for Congo Showroom reservations.

"LOVE MY WIFE" CONTINUES AT PLAZA

The two-time winner of Broadway's most coveted award, the prestigious Tony, "I Love My Wife" plays twice nightly in the elegant show-room of the downtown resort, with an 8 p.m. dinner and an 11:30 p.m. cocktail performance.

Jerry Clark is winning both laughs and fans with his portrayal of Alvin, a warm, loving, happily married man who begins to wonder if the sexual revolution is passing him by. Playing the other half of that happily married couple is Georgia Neu, as his wife, Cleo.

Also appearing in "I Love My Wife" are Ron Moriarty as Alvin's best friend, Wally and Robyn Blythe, as Wally's pretty wife, Monica. Portraying the members of the strolling band, providing musical interludes with songs like that upbeat, peppy, "Hey There Good Times," are Al Gambino, Kenny Greig, Joey Vespe and Ray Wolff.

"I Love My Wife" is produced and directed by Maynard Sloate, with musical numbers staged by Jack Payne. Fred "Mickey" Finn is musical coordinator.

When Jerry Clark was only six years old, his mother took him to see a movie called "The Red Shoes" - and immediately he fell in love with what he calls, "the sense of drama, the excitement, the technicolor," and knew what he wanted to do with his life.

Showtimes for "I Love My Wife" are 8 and 11:30 p.m.
