

HOROWITZ

soul-mates, the representatives of Syria and Jordan, have been vying for this honor. In the event, it would seem that Jordan has won out and has managed to outdistance Syria."

At a subsequent debate, Blum's deputy, Ambassador Arye Levin, presented a background history of the expelled PLO - inspired Mayors -- a criminal history. "One could ask why with this kind of reputation," Levin queried, "Messrs. Shaka'a and Khalaf were not dismissed sooner by Israel from their public office.... Mr. Shakas, the former Mayor of Nablus, has endorsed the stage-by-stage PLO theory according to which a PLO state in Judea, Samaria and the Gaza District would precede the ultimate liquidation of the State of Israel. He has repudiated both the Israeli - Egyptian peace treaty and the concept of autonomy outlined in the Camp David framework for peace. Moreover, Mr. Shaka'a has threatened anyone willing to accept autonomy or to cooperate with Israel with a death sentence...."

Levin further charged that Karim Khalaf, the former Mayor of Ramallah "had gained notoriety by identifying himself with extremist factions of the terrorist PLO and personally incited students to engage in unauthorized strikes, demonstrations and street riots, the timing of which was coordinated between the PLO, the municipality and the National Guidance Committee...."

Ambassador Blum, who delivered a major address on this whole question of the Palestinians versus the PLO, masterful in its content, made it clear to the Security Council -- presided over for the month of March by the dynamic Jeane Kirkpatrick who had turned down a request by PLO's Terzi to meet with him -- that for the first time since June 1967, a local Arab leadership has arisen in Judea, Samaria and the Gaza District which believes that it is not bound by orders emanating from the terrorist PLO. These local Arab leaders are willingly and successfully pursuing a path which indicates their desire to live in peace with Israel and which repudiates the PLO's methods of terror and violence....

Here we have the reason why the bewildering PLO terrorists, with the aid of such as the expelled Mayors, are attempting to bring their terror into Israel proper and the West Bank. Let the Exodus be a lesson to them. Also 1948, 1956, 1967 and 1973. It is Passover 5742.

WASHINGTON (WNS)--The Reagan Administration has removed Iraq from the countries it lists as a "supporter of international terrorism."

NAZI LOSES U.S. CITIZENSHIP

MIAMI (WNS) -- The U.S. citizenship of a Ukrainian-born Nazi collaborator was revoked by a District Court in West Palm Beach.

The ruling by Judge James Paine that Bohdon Koziy, a resident of Fort Lauderdale, lied about his Nazi activities when applying for admission to the U.S. and for naturalization, opens the way for deportation proceedings against him.

Koziy is accused of having killed at least 10 Jews and other civilians while he was employed by the Nazis as a policeman in the Ukraine during World War II. He also worked for the Nazis in Poland. He was tried last October on charges of gaining entry into the U.S. on false pretenses. Paine wrote in his decision that the accused "lacked the moral character required for citizenship."
