UNION PLAZA GIVES MONEY'S WORTH

With high interest rates, high unemployment, and high prices for just about everything under the sun, it's hard to get your money's worth these days.

Fortunately for both tourists and residents alike, that "money's worth" can be found in Las Vegas as close as Number One Main Street -- where the Union Plaza is offering the best bargain in town with the best show in town, "I Love My Wife." Critics have also loved "I Love My Wife," the daring and delightful sex-sational musical that took Broadway by storm and earned two of those prestigious Tony awards.

Starring the rubber-faced Jerry Clark, "I Love My Wife," plays nightly, both to an 8 p.m. dinner and 11:34 p.m. cocktail audience. Twice nightly is also when Clark wins the hearts of audiences as Alvin, a simple, kind-hearted, thoughtful husband who really does love his wife-- he just wonders now and again if he's lost out on anything by choosing fidelity over the sexual revolution.

Produced and directed by Maynard

Sloate, "I Love My Wife" also stars Georgia Neuf as Cleo, Alvin's wife and game for whatever might please her loving husband, with Ron Moriarity as Wally, Alvin's best friend and the guiding force behind the hilarious stab at experimentation.

TOMMY DEERING AT D.I.

MUSICAL MAGIC -- PERFORMING NIGHTLY EXCEPT WEDNESDAY IN THE DESERT INN'S RAFFLES BAR, TOMMY DEERING HAS QUICKLY BECOME A LOUNGE-GOERS FAVORITE.

BROADWAY'S TONY-AWARD MUSICAL AT D.I.

Broadway's Tony-Award winning musical, "The Best Little Whorehouse in Texas," presents its outrageously spirited story, song and dance on stage in the Desert Inn's Crystal Room.

This celebrated slice of rowdy Texas folklore is loosely based on the events surrounding the closing of the oldest continually operating bordello in the Lone Star State seen through the eyes of co-authors Larry L. King and Peter Masterson. Scored to the toe-tapping tunes and clever lyrics of Carol Hall, the show highlights the work of still another renowned Texas, choreographer Tommy Tune.

Musical back-up is provided by the Six Easy Pieces Band with Tony Booth as narrator.

The musical is offered twice nightly (except Monday) at 8 p.m. and midnight. Call 733-4566 for reservations.
