

"CHAZZ" BACK AT IMPERIAL PALACE

Word is spreading among their legion of fans -- CHAZZ is back in town and the Imperial Palace has them! The dynamic group can be heard nightly (except Sunday) in the Geisha Lounge through May 30, then they'll be off again to Atlantic City. The five versatile song stylists -- nominated "Most Popular Lounge Group" at Bally's Park Place -- have been seen more in Atlantic City than Las Vegas during the past year, but their fans have not forgotten them. Together for three years now (their anniversary was June 9), the group really got their start at the Royal Inn, doing a long engagement on "graveyard" and packing the house. Their trademark is their strong individual vocals and expert blending on hits by such contemporary groups as Manhattan Transfer. More and more they're adding original material to the act, too, as all five write music. A favorite of their fans -- and one picked up by other groups -- is "Lounge Entertainer" by Corky DeFini.

CHAZZ will be alternating with RISE, then share the stage with the SMITH BROTHERS. Call 731-3311 for exact performance times.

SAHARA COMEDY IS "IN THE BAG"

A guaranteed evening of comedy, music and good times is "in the bag" at "Burlesque Scandals," starring the Unknown Comic, with Murray Langston, twice nightly -- 8 P.M. and 12 midnight -- in the Congo Showroom of Del Webb's Sahara Hotel and Country Club.

A scintillating musical-comedy burlesque revue, "Burlesque Scandals" now offers optional dinner shows starting from only $14.50 for the early performances week-nights. The show is dark Mondays.

In addition to the Unknown Comic, "Burlesque Scandals" features exciting stripper, Miss Liberty West, handsome male singer Steve Dubov, songstress Nancy Buche, second bananas Claude

Mathis and Dexter Maitland, and the fabulous Minnie Mad-den dancers.

The Unknown Comic is a show business phenomenon who skyrocketed to nationwide stardom on such television series as "The Gong Show" after becoming a Las Vegas favorite in the Casbar Theatre at the Sahara. Also known as Murray Langston when out of that now-famous trademark grocery bag, T.U.C. elevated the comedy art form of sight gags to new heights when he put an ordinary grocery sack over his head and let his zany imagination run wild. Show business hasn't been the same since.

Who else signs brown paper bags and hands them out as autographed pictures or tosses around the candy-sized sacks as "baby pictures?" Add the ability to decorate more grocery bags in an endless array of imaginative ways, and the Comedy combinations are without limit.

"Burlesque Scandals" is comedy and more comedy as the proud veterans of burlesque, Claude Mathis and Dexter Maitland add to the fun with their classic and hilarious skits.

And just when you think you've seen it all, there's more as male and female ecdysiasts Rich Rizzo and Liberty West perform the special art of the striptease with some unusual twists.

"Burlesque Scandals," has it all. See it nightly, except Monday, by calling 735-4242 for Congo Showroom reservations.
