The hottest new act in town is now part of "BRAVO VEGAS '82" at the Imperial Palace Hotel Casino. Fielding West is exciting audiences nightly with his blend of truly amazing magical feats and off-the-wall humor.

With his beautiful assistant, Pam, West has perfected a disappearance illusion so unique it leaves the audience stunned. Before he gets to that finale, however, he disarms them with a combination of comedy and magic. His idol in the business (and also his good friend) is David Copperfield.

Not in the show right now, but possibly joining him for a guest appearance, are West's two trained Burmese pythons. "The smaller one -- she's just 8-12 feet long -- is named 'Miss Piggy'," he explained. "She's modeling for Barbizon right now. And the big one, Miss Puckers, is doing some serious modeling work in Florida."

The two snakes have modeled in ads for typewriters, furniture, toys for animals, dog food, belts and bowties.

BRAVO VEGAS '82 can be seen nightly in the Imperial Theater at 8:00 P.M. and 11:00 P.M. For reservation call 731-3311.

LIVE GAMING AT HOTEL CONTINENTAL

On Friday, April 30, at 3 P.M. sharp, the new Hotel Continental and Casino commenced operation of its live gaming tables, the final step in phase one of the newly completed property. The addition of live gaming created 50 additional positions in the casino and throughout the hotel.

"We opened with 4 blackjack tables and 1 crap table," said Tony Robone, General Manager, "but hope to double this within the next 60 days." Roulette and poker are also planned for the very near future.

Don Spence, Casino Manager, reported that from 3 P.M. Friday until 3 A.M. on Monday morning there was not a space available at any live game.
