

ISRAEL TO HALT ARMS SALES TO ARGENTINA

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Israel will make no further arms deals with Argentina but would deliver any arms already contracted for, Foreign Minister Yitzhak Shamir said. Shamir said that Israel wanted to stay out of the Falkland Islands dispute and had concluded no new arms deals since the crisis between Argentina and Britain erupted several weeks ago.

The British government had asked for clarifications of the arms relationship between Israel and Argentina after attention was drawn to the fact that an Argentine fighter plane downed by Britain off the coast of the Falklands was identified as an Israeli-made Dagger, a forerunner of Israel's Kfir fighter planes. According to officials here, Israel is a minor supplier of arms to Argentina, the source of less than 10 percent of Argentina's arms imports.

Reports in foreign publications noted that Israel has sold Argentina two squadrons of Daggers, known here as Neshers. Buenos Aires has also purchased four aluminum-hulled Dabur class patrol boats, several Gabriel ship-to-ship missiles and Shafir air-to-air missiles, among other advanced weapons. Israel officially maintains a tight news blackout of arms sales.

UN DEMANDS SANCTIONS

UNITED NATIONS (WNS) -- The General Assembly concluded its debate on the "Palestinian question" by adopting a resolution declaring that Israel is not a peace loving member state and demanding international sanctions against it. The vote was 86 - 20 with 36 abstentions. Voting in favor were the Arab countries except Egypt which abstained, the Communist bloc and the third world.

The opposition votes included the United States, whose representative branded the resolution "an ill-inspired, offensive document" that would harm the UN and all the Western bloc nations, except Greece which departed from its fellow European Economic Community (EEC) member states, supported by the resolution. Abstaining were most South American countries, a few African states and Japan.

The harshly worded resolution, concluding the debate on the Palestinian Question, conducted in emergency session by the General Assembly was somewhat softer than an earlier proposed draft which called for a review of Israel's status in the General Assembly when it holds its next regular session in September.
