

RAPHAEL THOMAS HAS BAR MITZVAH

Raphael Thomas, son of Mr. & Mrs. Charles Thomas, was called to the Torah and became a Bar Mitzvah during services at Temple Beth Sholom, 1600 E. Oakey Blvd., on Saturday morning, June 12, 1982. Rabbi Kalman Appel, spiritual leader of the Temple, officiated and conducted the services which commenced at 9:00 A.M. Cantor Simon Bergman chanted the liturgy.

The parents of the Bar Mitzvah hosted the congregation to Kiddush after services.

The West Valley Jewish Community Center was recently named Temple Emanu-El. The Temple announced its newly elected officers. They include: Nathan Denker, President, Jack Prager, 1st V.P.; Chester Neville, 2nd V.P.; Miriam Prager, Treasurer; and Elyssa Schneider, Secretary.

Temple Emanu-El holds Friday night services at 8 P.M. at the First Western Savings & Loan, Spring Valley Branch, Rainbow and Flamingo.

Services will be held every Friday throughout the summer. An Oneg Shabbat follows. For information about Temple Emanu-El call 870-2456 or 873-4838.

RABIN WARNS AGAINST MILITARY ACTION

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Israel cannot solve the problem of Palestinian terrorists in southern Lebanon by military means and to attempt to do so would be a grave mistake likely to entangle Israel in international difficulties without achieving its objectives, according to former Premier Yitzhak Rabin in an address to students at the Hebrew University's agriculture school in Rehovot.

Rabin's remarks came just a day following the statement by Chief of Staff Gen. Rafael Eitan who told high school students in Tiberias that only a military strike by Israel could put an end to terrorist harassment from Lebanon. Eitan has already been criticized by Knesset members for implicitly ruling out a political solution.

Rabin, a former Chief of Staff himself, said the terrorist threat from Lebanon could not be eliminated by military means because no nation in the world would agree to an Israeli occupation of Lebanon for any length of time. He did not refer to Eitan's remarks.
