TALKS BREAK WITH TELEM FACTION

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Negotiations between Premier Menachem Begin and the Telem faction in an effort by the Premier to persuade the two-man faction, founded by the late Moshe Dayan, to join his coalition, broke off after failing to reach an agreement on basic policy matters. The Telem faction's steering committee is scheduled to meet to evaluate the situation. Begin, while anxious to incorporate the faction into his coalition, is said to be unwilling to accede to Telem's demand that the government adopt Dayan's proposal to implement autonomy unilaterally on the West Bank and Gaza Strip if no agreement can be reached with the Palestinians.

Furthermore, Begin reportedly suggested that the Telem MKs submit the proposal to the Cabinet, after they become members of the coalition. Unilateral autonomy was flatly rejected by the Likud Cabinet when it was proposed by Dayan himself, who, as Foreign Minister, wielded far more influence than Telem does at the present time.

Telem is also uneasy over the government's declared intention to demand Israeli sovereignty over the West Bank and Gaza after the five year autonomy period. A Telem spokesman said recently that policy and principles rather than possible Cabinet portfolios motivated its negotiations with Begin.

LETTERS

Dear Editor:

Although we have never crossed paths, I would like you, as well as all my Jewish friends to know the following:

I do realize that when a Political year gets into full swing all candidates (whether liked or disliked) become the victims for all papers (be it large or small) to seek political advertisement.

Being a 32 year resident of Las Vegas of Jewish Faith and the name of my husband, Joseph M. Copeland, on the northern wall of Temple Beth Sholom, I have been cast aside in having political recognition. I can understand WHY, since Joe's death (25 years ago) I have never gained my own IDENTITY and was always referred to as "G.I. Joe's widow."

However, when roll-call is taken in the House of Representatives next year, they will use my name - Harriet Copeland.

I am a true Republican as like the elephant, I do not forget. Sincerely, Harriet Copeland
