BEGIN ASSURES REAGAN

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Premier Menachem Begin has assured President Reagan that Israel's military objective in Lebanon is limited to driving Palestine Liberation Organization forces beyond artillery and rocket range of settlements in northern Israel.

He said the army, which entered Lebanon in force, has orders "to push back the terrorists to a distance of 40 kilometers (25 miles) to the north so that all our civilians in the region of Galilee will be freed of the permanent threat to their lives."

Begin's statement was contained in a lengthy reply to a message he received from Reagan calling on him to "do what you can to avoid military steps that could lead to a widening of the conflict and even greater Israeli casualties." Excerpts from both messages were released here.

STATEMENT BY SENATOR KENNEDY ON JORDAN ARMS SALE

"I am pleased to join with Senators Heinz, Hart, Boschwitz and 46 other members of the Senate in introducing a Resolution to oppose the sale of advanced weapons to Jordan.

In recent weeks, it has become clear that the Reagan Administration is actively considering sales of F-5G fighter aircraft, portable Stinger anti-aircraft missiles, and laser-guided bombs to Jordan. The Administration never seems to learn; with these arms sales to Jordan, it is picking up in 1982 where it left off in 1981 with its AWACS sales to Saudi Arabia.

Our message to the Administration in this Resolution is clear beyond any doubt -- the United States must not sell arms in the Middle East that jeopardize the security of Israel.

The Administration's scheme to sell advanced weapons to Jordan violates that cardinal rule of responsible U.S. policy in the Middle East. I reject the incredible notion that Jordanian warplanes, missiles and bombs -- supplied by the United States and stationed just minutes away from the Western Wall in Jerusalem, the factories of Tel Aviv, and the kibbutzim in Galilee -- will not constitute a real danger to the people of Israel.

The F-5G is equipped to carry highly advanced Sidewinder missiles, which we are also supplying to Saudi Arabia; these (Continued on Page 14)

HEY MOM, HOW COME GRANDPA DIED?

WHAT HAPPENS WHEN PEOPLE DIE?

Children experience death in many ways. When a pet dies, or perhaps a relative dies it's important to answer the child's questions directly and honestly, and not to say that the person went away or went to sleep. An indirect answer may cause children to become angry at the deceased for having gone away, or angry at God, or they may even be afraid of sleep. Hiding death from children is not helpful. Direct and honest answers mean saying that the person or pet has died and will no longer be part of our lives. It's helpful to tell the child that death is natural and that when we die our bodies don't feel anything. A child should be allowed to go to the funeral home, but never forced.
