

JEWISH NEWS BRIEFS

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Political sources here said that Israel's limited diplomatic relations with India would continue despite the ouster of the Israeli Consul General in New Delhi for "unacceptable intervention in the affairs of India." The Consul, Yossef Hasson, was asked to leave following an interview in which he criticized India's negative attitude toward Israel. The source said the ouster should not be seen in the context of the war in Lebanon, Israel only has a consular office in Bombay which Hasson has headed since 1979.

BONN (WNS) -- Vandals defaced segments of an exhibition on peace and disarmament showing victims of Nazi concentration camps by daubing them with swastikas and Nazi slogans. The exhibition is taking place in Luebeck at the headquarters of the West German Central Trade Unions.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- The release of regular army personnel due for discharge will be deferred for three months, the Cabinet decided. It acted on a recommendation from the army general staff to increase manpower while easing the burden on reservists who will be serving some 60 - 70 days on active duty this year. The measure is expected to be approved by the Knesset's Foreign Affairs and Defense Committee.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Israel's military action in Lebanon may be causing identity problems for some of North American Jewry, but for others it has become a call for personal action, according to Moshe Schechter, director of the Israel Aliya Center of North America, it was reported. He said "more files have been opened by families and individuals who wish to move to Israel during the past 30 days than any other single 30 - day period in the past five years."

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- The head of the Uruguayan Jewish Community, Nahum Bergstein, assured Premier Menachem Begin of his community's strong support for Israel for the "Peace for Galilee" operation in Lebanon. Bergstein called on Begin at his office in Jerusalem, escorted by World Zionist Organization officials. He said his fellow Jews in Uruguay follow progress of the war closely and their view is that Israel had to act as it did in order to protect its northern settlements.

BONN (WNS) -- A West German lawyer has asked the Justice Minister to seek the extradition of three Palestinian terrorists reportedly captured by Israeli forces in Lebanon. The three, believed to have participated in the 1972 massacre of Israeli Olympics athletes in Munich, would not be given a fair trial, according to attorney Wilhelm Schoettler. The attorney is known here for his rightwing political views although he insists he is not a member of the neo-Nazi National Democratic Party or of any neo-Nazi group.
