"I LOVE" PLAYS AT PLAZA

There's nothing more pleasurable than watching four attractive performers bring a sparkling musical to life -- and that's exactly what happens nightly at the Union Plaza Hotel where the musical "I Love My Wife" is being presented.

The award-winning musical can be seen twice nightly at 8 p.m. dinner and 11:45 p.m. cocktail shows. Jerry Clark, the star of the show, plays the husband with a problem. He loves his wife and she loves him. But the husband is challenged by his best friend who is also married to a lovely wife.

The challenge is for the two husbands to make a switch of wives, to try what they call a "multi-love experience." They attempt it, and that's where the chaos and fun begins.

PLATTERS PERFORM AT IMPERIAL PALACE

these five singers are not the original Platters, but they recreate the original sound that produced their Gold Records in the 1950s and 1960s. A Texas reporter once wrote, "The Platters have a franchise on the time machine. They stay forever young, while the rest of us just grow older."

Who can forget "Only You," "My Prayer," "The Great Pretender," "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes," "The Magic Touch" . . . some of the group's oldies. It was more than the lyrics that made the Platters' recording of "Only You" successful. It was a new sound -- the harmony of four guys and a girl. It was an accident, but one that songwriter Buck Ram has been grateful for ever since. Ram recalls, "One day when we were rehearsing, our lead tenor sang it and cracked on that 'O-only you.' And I said 'I leave that in there.' I guess I am gimmick conscious, and we left it in and recorded it that way.

THE PLATTERS, JACKIE GAYLE, AND THE FOUR FRESHMEN opened July 28 in the beautiful showroom of the Imperial Palace. The popular showmen are doing two shows a night at 8 p.m. and 12 midnight with the exception of Monday when they will perform at 12 only. Singer DJAN TATLIAN and comedian DAVE SWAN will continue in the 10 p.m. slot (except Tuesdays, their night off). The bill will change August 3 when another group (to be announced very soon) will replace the FOUR FRESHMEN. THE PLATTERS and JACKIE GAYLE will carry on. With 13 Gold Records and 3 Gold Albums to be proud of, The Platters (known in the business as "Buck Ram's Platters") are certainly worth their weight in gold! Everyone knows by now that

Although the group currently performing as THE FOUR FRESHMEN has just one original member (Bob Flanigan), the other three are superbly talented singers and instrumentalists, all devoted to keeping the unique Four Freshmen sound intact.

Jackie Gayle is a stand-out stand-up-one of the most highly acclaimed comedians to ever play the Strip. Here are the words of a Las Vegas newspaper columnist reviewing Gayle's act when he opened for Sinatra: "He is the possessor of one of the fastest comedy minds in the business

..Gayle clocks more laughs in 30 minutes, solid laughs, than any comic we have caught in that opening slot."
