

OF THE STARS

he has ever done, getting big laughs for his materials and options picked up into the future... Atlantic City itself is still the sleazy, old, decaying place immediately off the Boardwalk area where the casinotels are located and the one exception, Harrah's, all by itself in the Marina section. Jitneys and buses run the crowds to Harrah's every 15 minutes or so from near the Sands at Park Place. And now a thank you to PHYLLIS KAUFMAN, the only entertainment director of the bunch taking care of two stages and several lounges, the Sands, both in A.C. and Vegas. Salud!

SEE "BOTTOMS UP" AT SAHARA

Twice nightly in the Congo Showroom of the Sahara Hotel and Casino, eager audiences sip cocktails and anxiously await the rising of the curtain and the darkening of the house lights and the swell of the orchestra signaling that the show is about to begin. With the zaniness and unpredictability of "Bottoms Up '83" it doesn't quite happen that way. From the show's surprise beginning to the non-stop comedy assault to the dazzling dance and musical numbers, "Bottoms Up" is a fast-paced, surprise-packed hit at 8 p.m. and 12 midnight cocktail shows Tuesday through Sunday. The $9.95 minimum which gets patrons two cocktails is a hit with the bargain-conscious showgoer, too. The show stars the energetic and inventive Breck Wall who produced the first "Bottoms Up" edition 25 years ago and fea-
