NEW YORK (WNS) -- The Conference on Jewish Material Claims Against Germany announced that the filing date for applications to the Claims Conference Hardship Fund will expire on December 31, 1982. Applications may also be filed by such persecutees who prior to December 31, 1965 resided in countries outside Eastern Europe and did not file timely claims under the German Indemnification Law.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- A Jewish population of some 100,000 will dominate the West Bank in three years if the present birth rate continues, according to a study nearing completion by Dr. Meron Benvenisti, former Deputy Mayor of Jerusalem. According to a report here, Benvenisti said he found that contrary to popular belief, the natural rate of increase among Palestinian Arabs in the territory is lower than the birth rate of Jews inside Israel proper. Benvenisti's study, financed by small grants from City University of New York's Institute for Middle East Peace and Development, is titled West Bank Data Base Project.

LOS ANGELES (WNS) -- The late Ingrid Bergman won an Emmy Award for her portrayal of Israeli Prime Minister Golda Meir during ceremonies held here.

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- A group of anti-war reserve officers and soldiers calling themselves the Yesh Gvul (There's a Limit) organization, have presented a petition signed by 1,000 persons requesting Premier Menachem Begin and Defense Minister Ariel Sharon to recall all Israeli soldiers from Lebanon. The petition, which the organization said contained the signatures of 150 Israel Defense Force officers, said: "There is no military solution to the Palestinian problem....we swore to defend the State of Israel and not a new order in a country which is not ours."

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- President Reagan has been urged to cut off military and economic aid to Israel by leading officials of the United Presbyterian Church as a demonstration of the Administration's concern of Israeli policies in Lebanon.

ROME (WNS) -- A bomb was hurled from a passing car in front of the main entrance of Milan's chief synagogue on the morning of October 1. The building was damaged but there were no injuries. Several hours later, news agencies received anonymous phone calls from a group calling itself "Communist Fire Fighters" which claimed responsibility for the incident. The Milan Jewish community issued a statement in which it accused the Italian press of being indirectly responsible because of its anti-Israel stance.

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- Vice President George Bush has declared that the Arab states must go beyond their "implicit recognition" of Israel contained in the Fez communique and "state with clarity, as Egypt has, that Israel has a right to exist." Speaking at the National Press Club, Bush also urged Israel to recognize the legitimate rights of the Palestinian people.
