"CHORUS LINE" BACK AT DI

For those who missed it and those who loved it, "A Chorus Line" -- one of the most sensational musicals of all time -- is singing and dancing again in Las Vegas. The show's international Company has returned to the Desert Inn's Crystal Room for a limited engagement.

The proud recipient of the New York Drama Critic's Award, nine Tony Awards and a Pulitzer Prize, "A Chorus Line" played to standing-room-only audiences during two previous engagements at the D.I.

The universally-acclaimed musical talent behind the show is composer Marvin Hamlisch. Lyrics are by Edward Kleban, with book by James Kirkwood and Nicholas Dante. "A Chorus Line" was originally presented by Joseph Papp under the banner of the New York Shakespear Festival.

"A Chorus Line" plays twice nightly in the Crystal Room at 7 p.m. and 11 p.m. The showroom is dark on Mondays. Call 733-4566 for reservations.
