JEWISH LEADERS TO GO TO COSTA RICA

Some 40 leaders of the American Jewish Congress will take part in a mission to Costa Rica in January as the first step in an ongoing program to strengthen ties between the Costa Rican and American Jewish communities.

The mission, which will include meetings with Costa Rican President Luis Alberto Monge, his wife and other government officials, is also designed to demonstrate "the gratitude of the American Jewish community to the Costa Rican government for its courage and consistence in maintaining long-standing friendship for Israel," said Chiae Herzig, a national vice president of AJCongress, who is leading the mission with Esther H. Kolatch, assistant executive director of the organization.

Costa Rica is one of the few countries with diplomatic ties to Israel that has moved its embassy from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem, in spite of pressure from Arab and communist countries.

The mission members will include AJCongress leaders from New York, Ohio, Connecticut, Illinois, Maryland, Florida and Texas. The visit will take place January 10-16.

In addition to visits with officials, the mission will tour sites of general interest in Costa Rica and attempt to learn as much as possible about the history of the country which is one of the few in Central America with a strong democratic tradition and a highly-developed form of representative government.

JEWISH VETERANS STRESS UNITY

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- "As soldiers who have struggled for liberty, we met again as veterans to fight for democratic principles," declared Stanley N. Zwaik, National Commander of the Jewish War Veterans of the U.S.A., after the November 22 meeting in London with Jewish veteran leaders from the United Kingdom, Israel and France.

The international leadership group expressed their desire for united action to combat worldwide anti-Semitism, continuing international terrorism, and the denial of human rights to Soviet Jews, especially the right to emigrate. They reaffirmed their support for and solidarity with the only democratic state in the Middle East, Israel.

These principles will be given renewed attention and focus during the 3rd World

Assembly for Jewish War Veterans to be held in Jerusalem in February 1983, for which the international veteran leadership made final arrangements at the London meeting.

Further details about the 3rd World Assembly for Jewish War Veterans and a seven day specially arranged tour preceding it (February 13-23) may be obtained from JWV of the USA National Headquarters, 1712 New Hampshire Ave., N.W., Washington, D.C., 20009, (202) 265-6280.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Some 100 foreign academics teaching at West Bank universities will continue to refuse to sign an anti-terrorist pledge demanded by the civil administration even though the form of the document has been changed. A decision to that effect was taken at a meeting in East Jerusalem but the Administration was not immediately notified. The document requires the applicant to sign an undertaking not to support the PLO or any other organization hostile to Israel.
