TRIBUTE TO THE MOVIES AT MGM

UNLV's recent production of the JEAN ANOUILH/LILLIAN HELLMAN "The Lark", is this year's entry in the American College Theatre Festival in Kennedy Performing Arts Center in Washington, D.C. The ACTF nominated two UNLV theatre arts majors for the prestigious IRENE RYAN acting award...TOM NEWTON and TERESA MARIE GILMORE, based on their recent perfs in "The Last President," an original drama by JERRY CRAWFORD. "The Last President," incidentally, is UNLV's associate entry in ACTF competition...Gambling novices are gravitating to Imperial Palace for free instruction on how to eventually lose their money in bunches. The school has tables for craps, roulette and "21"...LOLA FALANA has new thoughts on Vegas enough to sign on with the Sands over New Year's Eve. She opens on the 28th with JOHNNY BROWN. ASSOCIATION & LIMELITERS closed Wednesday with Copa Room dark until FALANA.

NEW YEARS AT IMPERIAL PALACE

long list of movie credits. She played with Peter Sellers in The Pink Panther, Tony Curtis in Sex and The Single Girl, and co-starred with Richard Widmark in A Talent for Loving. She was also Elvis Presley's leading lady in MGM's HARUM SCARUM.

Her first love is nightclub and showroom performing, however. She has appeared at such prestigious spots as New York's Plaza Hotel and Rainbow Grill, Puerto Rico's Caribe Hilton and Flamboyant Hotel, Miami Diplomat Hotel and San Francisco's Fairmont Hotel. She also has a large Las Vegas following from her engagements at the MGM Grand with Lou Rawls and the Sahara with Don Rickles.

Backing Fran Jeffries and playing dinner and dancing music will be the Frank Moore Orchestra. Location of the party is the spacious "Royal Halls" on the third floor of the Imperial Palace. Price for the evening of cocktails, superb dining, dancing and the show by Fran Jeffries is $55 per person (inclusive). Tickets are available at the show reservation booth. Call 733-0234.
