THREE ARABS GO ON TRIAL

LONDON (WNS) -- Three Arabs identified as members of a PLO splinter group went on trial here for the attempted murder of Shlomo Argov, the Israeli Ambassador to Britain, who was shot and severely wounded last June 3 outside a London hotel. The PLO disclaimed responsibility for the assassination attempt. Nevertheless, Israel retaliated for the shooting of Argov by bombing PLO bases in Lebanon on June 4 and on June 6 Israeli forces invaded Lebanon with the then stated intention of securing a 25 kilometer terrorist-free zone in south Lebanon.
