

JEWISH NEWS BRIEFS

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- A reserve artillery captain was sentenced by a military court to 28 days in prison for refusing to serve in Lebanon for reasons of conscience. Felix Laud, 37, is the highest ranking officer yet sentenced for refusing to serve in Lebanon since the beginning of the war there last June. Two other officers and three soldiers are in prison for the same reason.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- The American Jewish Congress said it was satisfied with agreements it reached with nine leading United States-based corporations that shareholders would be informed of the extent of the corporations lobbying efforts on behalf of the 1981 $8.5 billion AWACS arms package sale to Saudi Arabia. A number of these corporations also said they would not engage in lobbying activities on behalf of U.S. Middle East policy in the future.

CHICAGO (WNS) -- The Chicago City Council, by a vote of 43 - 2, adopted a resolution urging the United States to assist in rescuing and settling the Falashas, the Jews of Ethiopia. The resolution warned that the Falashas are in "danger of actual physical extinction unless immediate assistance is forthcoming from a generous and powerful country like the United States."

BUCHAREST (WNS) -- Some 9,000 volumes of the Talmud and 305 Torah scrolls have been shipped to Israel with a special authorization from the Rumanian government, the Federation of Rumanian Jewish Communities announced. The Federation said that an additional 30-40,000 books of Jewish religious interest will be sent to Israel in the next few months. A Rumanian law prohibits the export of old books of historic or artistic importance but these shipments to Israel have been granted a special permission by President Nicolas Ceausescu at the request of Chief Rabbi Moses Rosen.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Valery Senderov, a 37-year-old non-Jewish Moscow mathematician who helped compile statistical proof of the exclusion of Jews from the institutions of higher learning in the USSR, was sentenced to 12 years' punishment, the maximum term for "anti-Soviet agitation and propaganda," it was reported by the Student Struggle for Soviet Jewry and the Union of Councils for Soviet Jews. He will serve seven years in a labor camp and five years in internal exile.

BONN (WNS) -- The old Jewish cemetery of Aschaffenburg, south Germany, has been desecrated, according to a report here March 1. Five tombstones were completely demolished and many others were painted with Nazi and anti-Semitic slogans. Police are investigating, and the municipality has promised to repair the damage without delay.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Jewish religious holiday observances will be broadcast this year on Radio Warsaw, according to information reported here. The broadcasts will be on middle-wave 366 mm, and also on short-wave 71-45 MHz and are believed to be free of jamming in the Soviet Union. The following are the dates and times of the broadcasts: a Passover program, March 28, 17:00 GMT (Greenwich mean time); Shavuoth, May 17, 17:30 GMT; Rosh Hashanan, September 7, 16:00 GMT; and Yom Kippur, September 18, 15:30 GMT.
