

NEO-NAZI TERRORISTS ARRESTED

PARIS (WNS) -- Five German neo-Nazi terrorists arrested in West Germany and Britain are currently under investigation by French authorities who believe the suspects may be involved in the attack on Jo Goldenberg's restaurant in the old Jewish quarter here last August and in earlier anti-Semitic attacks in Vienna, Berlin and London. A sixth member of the gang is being sought. They may also have been involved in the attack on a Brussels synagogue last summer and in the machinegun and grenade attack last October in which a two year old child was killed and a number of persons wounded.

The terrorist gang was rounded up as a result of cooperation between French, West German and British police. Three arrested in Frankfurt on February 15 are Dieter Sporleder, 22, Hans - Peter Frass, 22; and Helga Blashe, 40. Police found arms and explosives in their hideout. Two other suspects, Walter Kexel and Ulrich Tillman, were arrested in Poole, England, on February 18 and were presented before a London magistrate on February 21 for extradition proceedings. Frass, Kexel and Tillman are believed by German authorities to have been members of the outlawed neo-Nazi paramilitary organization that posed as sports club headed by Karl Heinz Hoffmann. Hoffman has been charged with the murder of an Israeli publisher, Shlomo Levin, and his woman companion, Frida Poescke in West Germany in 1980, and was arrested several months ago.

French police said February 21 that Kexel and Odfried Hepp, another neo-Nazi suspect detained in Frankfurt, were at the Goldenberg restaurant when a terrorist hit squad killed six people and wounded 22. French police close to the investigation however remain skeptical that the attack was carried out by neo-Nazis. A senior police official has been quoted as saying that undisclosed evidence and other leading leads point to a "Palestinian connection." There is a belief that the neo-Nazis, while not committing the actual attack on the Paris restaurant, had provided arms and logistics to the hit squad. Reports also said that some of the terrorists arrested had visited Lebanon on several occasions and were in the West European countries at the time of the attacks.

HENDERSON'S INDUSTRIAL DAYS 1983

"Thirty Years of Progress-And Growing" is the 1983 Industrial Days Parade theme. The parade, which will be held Saturday, April 23, at 11:45 a.m., will climax the many Industrial Days activities which begin with the Beauty Pageant to select "Miss Industrial Days."

The entry classifications are for decorated car, decorated floats, marching group, drill team, marching band, unique entry, depicting business, youth group, motorized group, church entry, Model "A," Model "T", others to 1925 auto, 1926 - 1940 auto, 1941-1960 auto, as well as the mounted groups - pair, single, group, parade horse, matched pairs, silver pairs, Arabian costume, Spanish, and hitch drawn. It is a rule that all autos and trucks must have 100 per cent decoration coverage from the bottom window level to the hub cap level with the exception of special industrial equipment, antique automobiles, and special interest auto. This ruling has made the parade more colorful and exciting these past years.

Thousands of spectators line the parade route each year with entries from Las Vegas, North Las Vegas, and surrounding areas. Miss Industrial Days will be riding in the parade along with her court. All organizations throughout Nevada and other states are invited to participate in the Industrial Days Parade.

GOVERNOR NAMES HELM TAXICAB ADMINISTRATOR

Governor Richard Bryan Wednesday announced the appointment of Don Helm as administrator of the Nevada Taxicab Authority.

Helm, 46, will assume the $32,400-a-year post in two weeks.

Born in Las Vegas, Helm has been working as an area manager for a security firm. He is a twenty-year veteran of the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department.

While working for Metro, Helm set up a crime prevention training program for cab drivers. During college at UNLV, he drove a cab to support himself.

"The Taxicab Authority is a crucial state agency, regulating the needs of both the cab companies and the cab drivers," Governor Bryan said.

"Running the authority requires both law enforcement and administration know-how," he said. "Don Helm has a background in both those areas, plus the added experience of actually working as a cabbie."

Helm also worked as a Clark County juvenile officer. He served in the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers for two years in Germany.
