Forty-five friends and relatives joined with Esther and Irving Corben to celebrate Irv's 70th natal day. The Corbens were owners of "Corb's Home Center," now operated by Ole's. The evening started out with a cocktail party at their home on the Las Vegas Country Club Grounds, followed by a lovely evening of dining and entertainment at State Street. Out of town guests included their son, Dr. Michael Corben with their three grandchildren from Northridge, California. Ruth Shulman and Marilyn Raine from Bellevue, Washington and Milt and Kellie Lewis from San Diego, California. And, of course, their lovely daughter, Janis Rounds and her husband, Drew, with their children, who make their home in Las Vegas. There was much rejoicing the evening of Irving's natal day. Fatima surprised Irving and did her usual sexy dance. The music and singing by all made this a most fraulich party.
