BBYO is not dead! We are alive and doing well at Temple Beth Sholom on Wednesday nights from 7:30 to 9:00 P.M. You do not have to be affiliated with Temple Beth or any Temple to come down and join us. All youth from 13 to 18 are welcome. We presently have two AZA Chapters (boys) and two BBG Chapters (girls). A total of 102 Jewish youth are presently participating with new and exciting events. A car Rally and scavenger hunt, planned by Las Vegas BBG, went off like clock work and time just sped by at the party afterwards.

Queen Esther Ball, the Las Vegas BBYO formal dance of the year, found Heidi Gershenbaum and Greg Koppe BBYO Sweetheart and Beau. Thanks to All, especially the Treasury Hotel, for making this year's function a Great Success. Our annual trip to Disneyland or Magic Mountain is back in the planning for June along with June Boards, another Regional event. The Committee on Jewish Education is pleased to announce its first program has been held. The upper level students of Congregation Ner Tamid and Temple Beth Sholom, their parents, and their teachers all met at the University Center for Religion and Life on the U.N.L.V. Campus.

The keynote speaker for the evening was Dr. Vern Mattson, UNLV history professor, currently teaching a course on the Holocaust at the University. Dr. Mattson discussed the Holocaust in its historical perspective and considered modern implications. There was a question and answer period, and the students were very responsive and interested. Dr. Mattson studied last summer at Yad VaShem in Israel. (Funds for his trip and participation in the teaching seminar in Israel were provided by the Jewish Federation of Las Vegas and the Barrick Travel Fund of UNLV.) Congregation Ner Tamid and Temple Beth Sholom will be holding joint classes again next year.

For further information, contact: Micki D. Hecht, 645-6624.
