

ITALY FIGHTS ANTI-SEMITES

NEW YORK (WNS) -- The head of Italy's Jewish community said that new anti-Jewish attitudes stemming from the Middle East conflict now posed greater dangers for European Jewry than older and more familiar forms of anti-Semitism.

Tullia Zevi, president of the Union of Italian Jewish communities, said that "classic" anti-Semitism was diminishing in Western Europe but, she stressed, "continued vigilance against known neo-Nazi and anti-Semitic forces" was still necessary. Mrs. Zevi, the first woman to serve as Italian Jewry's president, made her remarks at a session of the American Jewish Committee 77th annual meeting which concluded its five-day agenda at the New York Hilton Hotel.

Declaring that "dealing with anti-Semitism is now more complex than it was just a few years ago," Mrs. Zevi said that anti-Israel feelings that arose in many Western European countries after the Lebanon war had "spilled over" onto local Jewish communities, causing a "tense and at times dangerous atmosphere."

Contributing to the tense climate, continued Mrs. Zevi, were the efforts of "Libyan and other Arab sources" to "purchase favorable opinion, for example by giving job training to unemployed youths, who are then marshalled for rallies demonstrating support for the Arab cause."

Mrs. Zevi reported also that European communities viewed recent terrorist attacks "not as a sign of growing European anti-Semitism, but as an attempt by Arab forces to bring the Middle East conflict to Europe, and thus frighten Europeans away from pro-Israel activities."

FORMER NAZI TO BE DEPORTED

NEW YORK (WNS) -- An Immigration and Naturalization Judge has ordered the deportation of Karl Linnas, 63, of Greenvale, Long Island, on charges he commanded a Nazi prison in Tartu in occupied Estonia during World War II. Judge Howard Cohen affirmed three previous federal court findings that Linnas had served as an officer in an Estonian partisan group which collaborated with the German army and that he conducted executions at the prison at which more than 12,000 Eastern European victims, including 2,000 Jews, were murdered.

Linnas has reportedly chosen Estonia as the country he wanted to be sent to, if the deportation order was sustained in an expected appeal which could go to the Supreme Court. Neal Sher, acting director of the Office of Special Investigations, said that since Estonia is now part of the Soviet Union, which provided some of the documents used in evidence in the hearings and which sentenced Linnas in absentia for war crimes, Linnas will be deported to the Soviet Union. The case was started in June, 1981.

ABOUT ANDERSON DAIRY ICE CREAM.

The fact is, Anderson was the first dairy to make ice cream in Las Vegas. Creamy, delicious tasting ice cream made with only the choicest, most flavorful ingredients.

Like hand-selected vanilla beans imported from Tonga. Rich, aromatic Brazilian cocoa beans for the chocolate.

And the freshest strawberries and peaches from California.

In fact, this month's special flavor, Honeymoon, has fresh chunks of pineapple, coconut and cherries. It's just one of a freezer full of luscious Anderson ice cream and sherbet flavors to choose from.
