Shultz's Mideast Visit Yields Little Progress

French Gang Behind Attacks On Jewish Targets

PARIS (WMS) — French police are convinced that the extremist terrorist gang headed by Abu Nidal was responsible for the series of attacks on Jewish targets in Western Europe during the summer of 1982 as well as the murder of Issam Sartawi, a PLO moderate who was gunned down in Lisbon last April 10.

The police reached that conclusion after an investigating magistrate and the chief inspector of the Paris police visited Al Awat Youssef, the prime suspect in the Sartawi killing, who is being held in Lisbon. He is an admitted member of the Nidal gang.

Youssef's forged Moroccan passport showed that he was in France from July 25 - August 10, 1982. On August 9, a terrorist gang launched a grenade attack on the Jo Goldenberg restaurant on the rue des Rosiers in the old Jewish Quarter of Paris, killing six persons and wounding 22.

Youssef is also a suspect in the terrorist assault on the main synagogue in Rome on

Syrian President Refused To Budge

JERUSALEM (WNS) — Secretary of State George Shultz's swing through the Middle East, with stop-overs in several Arab capitals and here in Israel, in a renewed U.S. effort to seek an agreement by the Syrians to withdraw their estimated 50,000 troops from Lebanon, concluded on a sour note, without any agreement with Syria nor "any substantive achievement by way of withdrawal" of Syrian troops from Lebanon.

Shultz's stop-over in the Middle East occurred rather unexpectedly as he was returning to

Las Vegas Businessman Elected National Commissioner of the Anti-Defamation League

Art Marshall, prominent Las Vegas businessman and civic leader, has been elected to the position of National Commissioner of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, announced Kenneth J. Bialkin, ADL's National Chairman.

The National Commission is the highest ADL lay group comprised of only 150 persons nationwide.

Active in numerous business and community endeavors, Art has served as Director of Nevada State Bank, Public Employees Retirement System and National Retail Merchants Association, as well as President of both Temple Beth Shalom and the Jewish Federation. As President of Marshall Rousso, Inc., he was recently presented with the coveted State of Israel Bonds Prime Minister's Medal.

A longtime supporter of the Anti-Defamation League and a Regent of its Society of Fellows, Art resides in Las Vegas with his wife Jayn and two children, Todd Marshall and Cari Marshall Bernstein.

Said Mr. Bialkin: "We are pleased to welcome Art, a man who has vigorously participated in the struggle against bigotry directed against all groups, to our national policy-making ranks."
