

Hot Day For Brian McKay

A special roast of Nevada Attorney General Brian McKay will be held Thursday, May 3, 6:30 p.m. at the Hacienda Hotel. $15 tickets and advance reservations may be made by calling 385-7207.

Local Republicans hope popular chants of "Where's the Beef?" turn to "Where's the Roast?" as the group prepares to sponsor a roast honoring Nevada Attorney General Brian McKay.

The event, according to Clark County GOP chairman Marilyn Gubler, will feature several prominent members of the community, including Lt. Gov. Bob Cashell.

Summa vice-president Fred Lewis and radio personality Red McIlvaine have agreed to serve as masters of ceremonies for the evening.

"So far Brian has been a great sport about all of this," Gubler said. "But I really don't think he knows what he's gotten himself into."

Gubler explained the event will be additionally highlighted by the appearance of a special "surprise" roaster.

Roasters presently confirmed for the affair include Peggy Cavnar, Joe Brown, Lynn Wiesner, Les Sully, Kirk Lenhard, Charlie Ivy, Edwina Prior and Eileen Schouweiler.

"We're calling the roast 'A Hot Day for Brian McKay,'" Gubler said. "We've lined up a very entertaining program. And you certainly don't have to be a Republican to come and enjoy the fun."

The roast will take place at the Hacienda Hotel Thursday, May 3, 6:30 p.m., the evening before the Republican State Convention. Tickets and advance reservations can be obtained by calling Republican Headquarters at 385-7207.

Tickets are $15 per person donation, which includes a light dinner of hot dogs, hamburgers and soft drinks. A cash bar will also be provided.

Gubler emphasized the dress and atmosphere of the roast will be casual.

Shamir Will Head Likud Election List

firm the results of the secret balloting.

Observers noted that only 75 percent — 679 out of more than 1,100 — of the Central Committee members turned up for the voting. They said that was a blow to Shamir because it indicated indifference among his supposed supporters. Pundits had said that if Sharon won as much as 30 percent of the vote he would have achieved a substantial victory.
