stately and awe-inspiring teacher-friend of the child.

Rabbi Grossman's accomplishments with children at his Galilean sanctuary — hailed by both the President and Prime Minister of Israel — were brought into the open here in New York on Sunday evening, April 8, at a special fete marking the fifth annual dinner of the American Friends of Migdal Ohr. The gala occasion, held at the Sheraton-Centre, marked the appearance of the popular Rebbe who delivered a major address holding the large audience spellbound for more than an hour.

A highlight of the gala banquet was the presence of another miracle in the person of octogenarian Rudolph J. Boyko, an escapee of the Nazis thanks to the timely warnings of a close 'aide' of Hitler, Eduard Schulte, who, at the risk of his own life saved many Jews and at the same time warned the Allies of Hitler's plans. The Schulte episode has only of late been brought into the open. Mr. Boyko, now a successful American industrialist, is an outstanding supporter of vital Ben-Gurion University projects involving the fructification of waste lands. He and his wife Rhoda, an accomplished sculptress and a deep student in psychic phenomena, were recently honored by the Negev University. An Institute of Agriculture and Applied Biology has been set up in their name. It was dedicated last year.

As the guest of honor at the dinner, Mr. Boyko was the recipient of Migdal Ohr's "Keser Shem Tov" Award. In presenting the Award, Jacob Rosenbaum, President of the American Friends, stated, among other things:

"On behalf of the thousands of Children who will become productive, law-abiding, observant sons and daughters of Israel through your beneficence, on behalf of Rabbi Grossman whose hands you have strengthened, on behalf of the whole Migdal Ohr family, to whom you have set a shining and inspirational example . . . it is indeed a great privilege and pleasure to present this "Keser Shem Tov" Award to you . . ."

Mr. Boyko responded with a statement read by his wife Rhoda. "God works in mysterious ways, His wonders to perform! he noted. "This has been so marvelously true throughout my life and that of my wife. Rhoda's and my own close link to Israel reborn proves it, and Migdal Ohr I view as one of these wonders . . ."

Passover — as well as Purim preceding the redemptive festival — should remind and assure us that the threats of enemies, no matter from whom they come, will not only be frustrated and fade into oblivion but that they, the threats and curses, will fall upon the heads these enemies as they had fallen upon Haman and the Pharaoh of the Exodus.

Out of the Israeli "Tower of Light" lies hope of redemption.
