J.P. Earle White Files For District Court

Justice of the Peace Earle W. White, Jr. has filed for election to District Court, Department 12, which is currently administered by Judge Robert Legakes who has announced he will not seek re-election. White, 50, was appointed to the Justice Court, Department 5 position by the Clark County Commission in June, 1980 to fill a vacancy and then won election to fill out the remainder of the term in November, 1980. He was re-elected in November, 1982. A Las Vegas attorney since 1964, White, a native of New York City, has served as a Clark County Public Defender, legal advisor and special appeals officer of the Nevada Industrial Commission, alternate referee for the Juvenile Department of the Eighth Judicial District and coroner's inquest hearing officer.

A graduate of Harpur College and Howard University School of Law, White served as legal assistant and attorney for the U.S. Housing and Home Finance Agency (now the Department of Housing and Urban Development) in Washington, D.C. in 1963 and 1964.

As a magna cum laude graduate of Howard, White served as editor-in-chief of the Howard Law Journal, was captain of the National Moot Court Team, was recipient for a research fellowship and full tuition scholarship and won 10 Bancroft-Whitney prizes in various segments of law education.

A U.S. Army veteran, taught school and was a recreation leader in Honolulu after his discharge and before returning to the mainland to pursue his legal education.

White is married and the father of two sons.

Platform of Ben Joseph Simon for State Senate District 5

I will be the 5th districts first full time State Senator in the history of the State of Nevada. I will establish a office in the 5th District, at no cost to the taxpayer, for the following purposes:

Assistant Citizens programs. Senior concerning State

Provide general information for all citizens concerning State programs.

Assist in solving problems for business and citizens of the 5th District.

Accept suggestions for legislation to be introduced in the State Senate.

I will introduce strong legislation to combat the increasing pollution problem in Clark County and the State. I feel that pollution is both detrimental to our health and can adversely affect the tourist trade in Nevada.

I will introduce stronger legislation to combat the high rate of violent crime in Clark County and the State. I believe in stronger police and judicial enforcement of the Law and stiff penalties for convictions of violent crimes.

I believe in a strong economy for Clark County and the State. I propose to introduce legislation to attract more light (non-polluting) industry to Clark County and State. A strong business economy will cut unemployment in the State.

I support a freeze on all taxes. I advocate any programs for the tax-relief for our senior citizens. Also, I support any efforts to cut wasteful spending of State funds.

LETTERS

Dear Michael:

We would like to thank you for the splendid photos you published covering the Minyonaires Purim party April 12.

We have always had a kindred spirit of friendship with each other, and we would like to publicly thank you for all the support you've given us all through the years.

Thank you again for honoring us in your great newspaper and may we both continue to serve the Las Vegas community, each in our own special way for many years to come.

Most sincerely and with great affection,
Herbert Brown, Secretary

I KNOW WE SHOULD GO TO THE FUNERAL HOME

BUT, I NEVER KNOW WHAT TO SAY.

The fact is that nothing can be said to express adequately our loss or make the bereaved family feel better. But that doesn't mean that a visit and an expression of sympathy won't be helpful. Bereaved persons tell us that it's not the words that are helpful but that someone cared enough to go to the funeral home and express their sympathy in person. Sometimes just a hug or holding your friend's hand briefly is a good way to say "I care." When a friend loses a loved one go to the funeral home. Express your sympathy and offer your assistance. You'll be appreciated for caring.
