

Labor Secretary (L) meets with Israeli Chief Rabbis Avarhem Shapiro and Mordechai Eliahu.

Labor Secretary plants a tree at the Jerusalem peace forest.

Secretary of Labor Raymond J. Donovan in a moment of reflection at the Western Wall in Jerusalem.

U.S. Secretary of Labor Visits Israel

Labor Secretary visits a Hebrew language class at the Gilo Immigration Absorption Center for Soviet and Romanian Jews.

Raymond J. Donovan, U.S. Secretary of Labor, shares his spiritually moving and intellectually rewarding experiences on his recent trip to Israel. He stated, "Throughout my travels in Israel, I found a spirit and enthusiasm among the people that distinguishes their country — and ours — from many others in the world. It is a can-do attitude that includes both reverence and respect for the past and a positive, optimistic outlook for the future."

Labor Secretary (R) discusses his visit to the Women's American ORT School of Engineering at the Hebrew University in Jerusalem with Israeli President Chiam Herzog. President Herzog is also Chairman of ORT International.

Labor Secretary (L) discusses U.S. — Israeli Free Trade Zone Area with Israeli Prime Minister Shamir.