

Israelite Salutes "Legends In Concert"

Israelite's Michael Tell (2nd row on the right) toasts the cast of "Legends In Concert" with champagne and a hearty, "Mazel tov" as they celebrate the first anniversary of a very successful show at the Imperial Palace.

All the vitality and showmanship that went into the hit show LEGENDS IN CONCERT are still present as producer John Stuart and company start their second year at the Imperial Palace. Recent changes have been made in the '84 Edition to give the audience even more entertainment value.

The show has evolved in its first year, primarily by four cast changes. Jonathon Von Brana and Raymond Wood joined the cast as Elvis Presley and Bobby Darin. A re-creation of Nat "King" Cole was added just before Christmas when Mack Jordan auditioned, and the producer's search for an artist to do John Lennon ended happily when he signed Randy Clark, famous for creating the John Lennon role in BEATLEMANIA on Broadway.

A total of seven superstars are brought to life on the stage of the Imperial Theater: Elvis, Lennon, Darin and Cole, as well as Buddy Holly, Marilyn Monroe and Janis Joplin. Those stars are re-created by very talented young artists - George Trullinger, Susan Griffiths and Sherie Rae. Comic Dave Swan continues to open for LEGENDS.

More dazzling special effects have been added, including more complex lasers, pyrotechnics, a special tribute to the Beatles in multi-media, and a computer-operated "tivolli light wall." Measuring 36 feet by 12 feet, the wall can display up to 500 different patterns. Also new are spectacular pry and explosion effects.

LEGENDS IN CONCERT, with its appeal to showgoers of ALL ages, has been the success story of 1983. With the '84 Edition, the Imperial Palace is proud to offer the best entertainment value in Las Vegas. Prices at just $11.95 (plus tax, includes two cocktails), tickets to LEGENDS are the hottest selling tickets in town. Both the 8 p.m. and 11 p.m. shows are frequently sold out by 2 p.m. on weekends.

For show reservations, call the Imperial Palace at 733-0234.

Dazzling 10-Year-Old Juggler Comes To "Bal du Moulin Rouge"

Each time Anthony Gatto begins to juggle he dazzles his audience with his amazing talent.

No, it's not the fact that he can manipulate the objects that he juggles into mid-air with such style and grace, or the fact that he can juggle as many as seven balls at one time.

The one thing that makes Anthony Gatto so unique with his juggling talent, is the fact that he can do all this and he is only 10-years-old.

Gatto is one of the youngest and most accomplished performers in his profession and he has brought his expertise to the Las Vegas Hilton's stage spectacular "Bal du Moulin Rouge."

Gatto has won the coveted gold award in Paris, in which he competed against some of the best in the field, many of whom had as much as 15 years experience. He also performed before Prince Rainier of Monaco in the Monte Carlo Circus Festival competition. The event attracts many of the world's finest circus and specialty acts, and he was awarded a plaque for being "the finest young juggler in the world."

Gatto's addition to the "Bal du Moulin Rouge" show promises a delightful time to be had by one and all. This young 10-year-old's performance combined with the talent of such show notables as Suzanne Somers, Charo and Jim Nabors truly shows that the Las Vegas Hilton provides the best entertainment bargain in town. Starting at $18.50 for the dinner show and $15.00 for the midnight cocktail show, the "Bal du Moulin Rouge" with little Anthony Gatto provides the finest in entertainment at an affordable price.

Don't Miss "Jones" At The Maxim

"JONES" now appearing in the Cloud Nine Lounge at the Maxim Hotel from 7 p.m. until midnight, nightly except Sundays. You say you want great entertainment in a comfortable atmosphere? The Maxim is your place!

"Making Out" At Union Plaza

How would you like to be the owner of a Malibu beach house where you could play host to four lovely ladies. That's what happens to actor Bob Denver in the smash comedy hit, "Making Out," now playing in the main showroom of the Union Plaza Hotel.

The Maynard Sloate production can be seen twice nightly at an 8:00 p.m. dinner and an 11:45 p.m. cocktail show.

The four lovely and shapely ladies in "Making Out" are played by exceptionally clever actresses.

Ann Wilkinson comes to the Union Plaza after extensive work in theater and television. She has been featured on the daytime soaps "One Day At A Time," and "Capitol."

Kat Sawyer Young took her training with the National Theater of Great Britain and at

UCLA. She has had roles in television's "The Waltons," and, among others, "Flamingo Road."

Constance Cawfield appeared with Bill Bixby in "Come Blow Your Horn," and in the film "Tender Trap" with Burt Reynolds. She is currently the voice of Wonder Woman on the television series "Super Friends."

Linda Miles is the former Miss Wichita and runner up to Miss Kansas where she won first place in the talent division for the Miss America Pageant. She tours with "Sound Of Music," with George Peppard. She was featured in the television special "The Neil Simon Tribute" with Sid Caesar.

These fine and very funny actresses bounce jokes off the funny situations in "Making Out," making this one of the Union Plaza's most popular shows.

TRAVEL WITH NATIONAL COUNCIL OF JEWISH WOMEN

Travel to Israel from New York or Miami with extensions to Egypt (including a Nile cruise), Rome, London, Madrid and Switzerland. Special Bar and Bar Mitzvah tours can be arranged to Israel, too. National Council of Jewish Women offers trips to Greece, Italy, Great Britain, Spain, the Orient, China, Costa Rica, the Canadian Rockies and a Grand Alpine tour. The advantage of these tours is that travel by air is offered in wide-body jets on regularly-scheduled airlines and in air-conditioned motor coaches on land. All tours have full-time managers and experienced local guides. These tours provide Jewish content as well as entrance fees to all museums and monuments. Purchase of tours through NCJW benefits our Section and provides special airfares and hotel rates which are passed on to the traveller. Call Joan Taitz, 735-3751, for details.

Please support the
AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY

Superior Letterpress

QUALITY PRINTING FROM HANDSET TYPE
1323 So. Commerce • Las Vegas, Nevada 89102

702 384-5215

JOE JACOBS

BUSINESS CARDS • NUMBERED TICKETS • STATIONERY

Advertise
In Your
Las Vegas
Israelite!
Now In It's 20th Year.