

Legends In Concert
Bridges Generation Gap:
Dynamic Show At Imperial Palace Is A Hit With All Ages

The musical nostalgia show, "Legends in Concert," is presented twice nightly (except Sundays) in the main showroom of the Imperial Palace. Seven talented newcomers recreate such legendary stars as Buddy Holly, Marilyn Monroe, Janis Joplin, John Lennon, Bobby Darin, Nat "King" Cole and Elvis Presley. Adding to the excitement is a wide array of new special effects, including laser lights and multimedia presentations. Showtimes are 8 p.m. and 11 p.m. Price is still $11.95 per person, including two cocktails.

performer recreates the artist live on stage.

The most exotic effect is achieved by brilliant laser light dancing above the stage, directed from a highly sophisticated laser projector and optics platform.

What makes the showroom crackle with energy and excitement, however, is the exceptional talent and sparkle of the performers.

"Our show," says Stuart, is like a time capsule bringing the talent and showmanship of those superstars to a new time."

LEGENDS IN CONCERT can be seen every night but Sunday at 8:00 p.m. and 11:00 p.m. in the Imperial Theater. Priced at just $11.95 (plus tax, includes two cocktails), tickets to LEGENDS are the hottest selling tickets in town. Both shows are frequently sold out by 2:00 p.m. on weekends. For reservations call 733-0234.

Musical Entertainment For Seniors At Temple Beth Sholom

Wanda Garcia

Tricia and Robert Underwood

The Seniors of Temple Beth Sholom had an outstanding musical program, recently, at their weekly luncheon held in the Entratter Social Hall. Harry Horberg, president of the club introduced Morry King, well known Las Vegas violinist and Temple Beth Sholom Choir Director. Those joining Morry were Wanda Garcia, piano soloist and accompanist; husband and wife vocalists, Tricia and Robert Underwood, and violinists Bernard Marks, Victor Vincent, Albert Kaufman and Kay Palatt, lovely wife of "Marvin" Palatt, Ace Photographer of the "Israelite" and a fine violinist as well.

The beautiful vocals of the Underwoods included excerpts from "Fiddler On The Roof," several Jewish songs as well as showtunes. The fine piano performance of Wanda Garcia is well remembered by the audience at Cantor Bergman's memorable concert. Cantor Bergman played a solo at the luncheon and was greatly appreciated by the Seniors. It was inspiring to hear the violin group playing "Shalom Aleichem," "Hevenu Shalom Aleichem," "Humoresque" and other classics including excerpts from that wonderful show, "Can-Can." Last, but not least, Morry King with Wanda Garcia accompanying played, "A Letter To Mama" and "Nigun (Baal Shem)" by Ernest Block. It was an enjoyable event and the audience was most enthusiastic.

Hussein, Mitterrand Say Mutual Concessions Needed For Mideast Peace

PARIS (WNS) — President Francois Mitterrand and King Hussein of Jordan said that peace can be obtained if all participants in the Middle East conflict would agree to make mutual concessions.

Hussein called for the staging of an international peace conference on the basis of United Nations Security Council Resolution 242 but the French President maintained a low profile on this issue and refrained from taking sides.

Mitterrand, who concluded a two-day visit to

Jordan July 11, has been trying throughout his stay in Amman to avoid giving Israel cause for concern and has stuck to his policy of maintaining good relations with both Israel and the Arab states.

He spoke about Palestinian rights and the need for a Palestinian homeland but refused to meet PLO chairman Yasir Arafat who was in Amman til Mitterrand's arrival. Mitterrand also refrained from calling for a PLO participation in any future talks as the Palestinian representative.

Mitterrand at a press conference July 10 in Amman said the PLO must recognize Israel, as UN resolutions demand, before it can take part in any peace negotiations or hope to win international recognition.

Mitterrand was scheduled to make a technical stopover in Cairo July 11 where he would confer with Egyptian President Hosni Mubarak.
