

Benson Performs Under The Stars At Caesars Palace Oct. 6

LAS VEGAS — Multi-million selling recording artist, George Benson, will headline an October 6 Concert Under the Stars at Caesars Palace.

Benson, who performed for a sellout crowd at Caesars last year, is basking in the success of his seventh album for Warner Bros., In Your Eyes. Showcasing his distinct combination of voice and guitar, In Your Eyes is a recent example of his singular musical ability and the consistent popular appeal he has enjoyed since 1976.

Breezin', Benson's first Warner Bros. album, proved an auspicious debut. "This Masquerade," the only vocal cut on an otherwise instrumental album, became the first song in music history to hold the number one spots on jazz, pop and soul charts. Breezin' went on to win three Grammy's, and it remains the best selling jazz album of all time.

Recording blockbusters followed. Platinum Weekend in L.A. with its hit single "On Broadway" and Give Me the Night with its two top ten hits, the title cut and "Love X Love" are just a few examples. Accompanying his recording success were a string of Grammy awards for both jazz and R & B stylings. Another measure of Benson's magic is the applause, the spontaneous dancing in the aisles, and the cheers of his live audiences.

Benson will perform at 8:00 P.M. on Saturday,

October 6. Fans are encouraged to come early and enjoy a poolside party before the concert. The fun begins at 6:30 P.M. with music, special prizes and plenty of beverages on sale throughout the beautiful gardens and pools near the stadium; admission is free. Concert tickets are on sale in the Caesars Palace Special Events Ticket Office at $15.00 and $17.50. Phone (702) 731-7865 or (800) 634-6698 (outside Nevada, within the U.S.).

BONN (WNS) — The Western Allied powers in West Berlin have issued an order barring the neo-Nazi National Democratic Party (NPD) from taking part in the March 10, 1985 elections to the city's Parliament. The NPD is banned in Berlin but has nevertheless a following estimated at several thousand people.

WASHINGTON (WNS) — Morey Schapira of San Francisco, head of the Bay Area Council for Soviet Jews, was elected president of the Union of Councils for Soviet Jews. Schapira succeeds Lynn Singer, who ended her three-year term as president of the UCSJ during the Council's annual meeting here.
