Heer's Joanie -- And Doc, And Garry At Caesars Palace Through October 2

playing musical director since 1967. Outstanding as a soloist, Severinsen has performed with many of this nation's orchestras in both symphonic and pops concerts. Somehow he manages to find time to be the resident conductor of the Phoenix Pops, as well. In live performances Doc delights fans with his popular trumpet technique, talented song and comedic flair that endeared him to millions of TV fans for almost two decades.

Garry Shandling, too, has guest hosted "The Tonight Show," an accomplishment he calls comedic nirvana. His recognition as a top comic came after years as a comedy writer for TV shows like "Sanford and Son" and "Welcome Back Kotter." His 1975 debut on "The Comedy Store" brought him to the attention of showroom headliners including Melissa Manchester, Tony Orlando and Eddie Rabbitt, and he's been on the road as a stand-up comic ever since.

Rivers, Severinsen and Shandling will perform two cocktail shows nightly at 8:30 and 11:30 p.m. The price is $25 plus tax (includes two cocktails). For reservations phone the Caesars Palace Circus Maximus Showroom (702) 731-7333.
