

Popular Comedian Rodney Dangerfield Returns To Lots Of Respect At Caesars Palace Through October 8th

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA October 3 - 8, chances are good that he will wear his trademark red tie and white shirt. Maximum Showroom Chances are even better that he will carry his hankerchief to wipe his perpetually moist brow. But there is one prop that Rodney has thrown aside -- he quit smoking cigarettes.

The busy comedian, who portrays on stage a harried middle aged American male, vainly seeking respect, could boast of many accomplishments this year. He just completed taping his own ABC-TV special. He's finishing a script for a new movie, which Orion Pictures aims to release this summer. And he had done two more Miller Lite commercials. But his proudest accomplishment this year, "no matter what happens," says Rodney, is quitting smoking. It took four weeks and lots of will power, but he did it. And for that, he deserves a lot of respect.

Rodney Dangerfield will appear in cocktail shows nightly at Caesars Palace. Phone the Circus Maximum Showroom for reservations (702) 731-7333 or (800) 634-6001 (outside Nevada, within the U.S.).

Israel Reduces Trade Deficit

NEW YORK (WNS) — Israel has reduced its trade deficit for the first eight months of 1984 by 25 percent, or $560 million, it was reported by the Economic Offices of the Government of Israel in New York. If the decline in the trade deficit continues at the rate for the first eight months of the year, the 1983 deficit of $3.47 billion would be reduced to $2.65 billion, Uri Oren, a Government spokesman said.

 beautiful actress off your mind.
 June Wilkinson, who has appeared in Playboy Magazine more than any other model and who is an aerobic expert, is a totally eye-fetching actress.
 The character Doris changes the life of Felix in the course of the funny comedy, "The Owl And The Pussycat." Because of her performance and her looks, she might change your life too.
