

France and Jordan Nearing Major Arms Deal

PARIS (WNS) — edly to finalize a major French Defense arms deal which will include French missiles equivalent to U.S. - built Stingers.

Reports here say France has agreed to sell Jordan an undisclosed number of Mistral, a surface-to-air missile not yet in production and described by French officials as superior to the Stinger.

President Reagan last March cancelled a deal to provide Jordan with 1,300 shoulder-held Stinger missiles. Jordan started negotiating soon afterwards with both France and the Soviet Union for equivalent weapons. France had then already agreed to provide Jordan with the Mistral, 13 Mirage F-1 jet fighters and electronic equipment as well as early warning material.

Final agreement on these sales was reportedly reached and Henu reiterated France's earlier decision to continue to provide Jordan with all the defensive weapons it needs. France and Jordan have set up a joint com-
