Follow the 39 exacting and hilariously illustrated steps in Mother Wonderful's JEWISH PENICILLIN and you will have an authentic pot of the best kosher chicken soup possible. You will also have administered a liberal dose of guilt to the entire family and inspired nervous breakdowns in both your daughter and your butcher.

Author Myra Chanin, who keeps millions of viewers laughing through her regular appearances on the national TV show, Hour Magazine, begins her instructions: "Early one morning when you know your daughter is having a busy day, call your daughter and say you're catching cold. Ask if she can spare a few minutes to drive you to a kosher butcher so you can buy a chicken with feet for soup. Everybody knows chicken soup is the best defense against germs."

Mother Wonderful goes on to drive her butcher into a minor depression and totally destroy her daughter's plans for the day.

With wit and precision and photographs of a real Mother Wonderful, Chanin's own mother, JEWISH PENICILLIN examines mother-daughter conflicts with approving humor. Mother Wonderful turns a mother's chicken soup recipe into a loving benediction and proves that you don't have to be Jewish to be a Jewish mother.

JEWISH PENICILLIN is more than a mere recipe. It's a plan for global conquest. Today my daughter, tomorrow the world.

Jewish Woman Becomes Governor Of Vermont

NEW YORK (WNS) — Madelein Kunin, the Democratic candidate in Vermont, became the State's first Jewish woman Governor, defeating State Attorney General John Easton Jr., a Republican. With 100 percent of the votes tallied, Kunin had 116,575 or 50.8 percent to Easton's 112,883 or 49.0 percent. Easton has conceded defeat.

Kunin is from a family of European emigrants that fled the Nazis in 1940 for the United States. The Swiss-born Kunin became a U.S. citizen in 1947. In 1972, she was elected to the Vermont House of Representatives. She served three terms. She was also Vermont's Lt. Gov. for two terms between 1978 to 1982.

Kunin, 51, lost a race for Governor two years ago to Richard Snelling, who is retiring. Significantly, she has in the past weeks gained the endorsement of many of the state's leading newspapers, including the traditionally Republican Burlington Free Press. There are about 2,500 Jews in Vermont, out of a state population estimated at 516,000.

Kunin had campaigned against Easton mainly stressing the themes of experience and improving educational opportunities. Easton, 41, stressed the issues of law-and-order throughout the campaign. Kunin becomes only the second women governor in the U.S. and is only the third Democrat, to hold the office in Vermont in 130 years.

In Missouri, meanwhile, Democratic State Senator Harriet Woods, became the first woman elected to be Lt. Governor, defeating Republican Mel Hancock. Woods, who is Jewish, gained national prominence when she staged an unsuccessful bid to oust U.S. Senator John Danforth two years ago. With nearly 80 percent of the vote counted, Woods has 932,414 or 54 percent, to Hancock's 793,349, or 46 percent.
