Sisterhood Temple Beth Sholom, November General Meeting and Luncheon is on Wednesday, November 28th, at 11:30 a.m. in the Social Hall of Temple Beth Sholom. Detective Chuck Woodworth will present a program on Self Protection. We urge everyone to attend. Babysitting is available by contacting the Temple office, 384-5070.

Tuesday, December 11 is set for the Congregation Ner Tamid Hebrew School open house. Parents are invited to see how their children are progressing in their Hebrew studies.

Congregation Ner Tamid announced that the Religious School has started a pre-school class for four and five year olds. Information for those interested is available by calling the Temple 733-6292.

The fathers of all children attending Congregation Ner Tamid Sunday School are invited to stop by the refreshment table in the synagogue to meet members of the Men's Club and to discuss how the Men's Club can aid in meeting the needs of their children, in their quest for a Jewish education.

The table will feature coffee and cake each Sunday during November during the hours the children receive their instructions in Judaism.

Those fathers subscribing to the ideals and principles of the Men's Club are invited to join the membership. The dues are $15 and cover the period to June 30, 1985.

Jerry Tarkanian, UNLV Runnin' Rebel Basketball Team Head Coach for the 11th straight year, was guest of honor of Congregation Ner Tamid Men's Club, recently. He talked about his plans for the coming season.

Tarkanian's career record distinguishes him as the winningest active collegiate basketball coach who seems to emerge at the zenith of every basketball category. His Rebels, as an example, finished last season with an overall mark of 28-3, which ranked second only to the University of Houston.
