

Bobby's Kastle - Just Opened

(Photograph By Marvin) Robert Selner

He's a tall, muscular man with a moustache and a smile that would thaw even the coldest of hearts. They call him the Maven, which is yiddish for the expert, and that he is, an expert when it comes to anything related to the world of delicatessens.

His name? Robert Selner. He's the owner of a new deli in town which is called Bobby's Kastle. Selner, a gregarious man hails from Chicago, where for over a decade he owned and operated the 999 Kosher Deli on Devon Avenue in Chicago. His credentials include a long stint as manager of Ricky's in Skokie.

Then one day, Bob decided he had had enough of that cold snow and moved his family to Florida. For a while he worked in the insurance field, but like the printer who has ink in his blood, Bob found out he had the deli business in his heart. So he decided to open a new deli in the neighborhood.

After being very successful in Florida, Bob decided to move to Las Vegas. Bob's new place is located at 4956 W. Charleston. Bobby's Kastle is open seven days a week from 6 a.m. to 9 p.m. and on Sundays is open from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. and featuring only the choicest meats, cheeses of all kinds, salads galore and party trays for all occasions. If that isn't enough to tantalize your appetite, Bob will also have on hand, freshly baked jumbo chocolate chip cookies and other pastry that will be delivered daily. And of course everything is moderately priced. Do yourself a favor. Trot down and you'll always be craving for his goodies.

Bobby's Kastle serving whatelse but Kastle Burgers 10 for 2.50. Buy a bag full. Famous for hot corned beef and hot dogs from Chicago's Vienna beef. He has a variety of Kastle Burgers, such as a quarter pound Kastle Sugerburger, served with bacon and cheese, and the one pound Bobby Burger, eat it in a minute and Bobby pays for it.

Hot and cold deli subs served with lettuce, tomatoes, provolone cheese, Bobby's Kastle has a complete deli department. Factory to you Vienna beef products for nosher and frashers.

They cater bar/bat mitzvahs, weddings and all your special occasions. Phone 878-2885 for more information.

Leningrad's Memory Lane

Activist Mikhail Beizer (r., with briefcase) conducts a tour of locales of historic Jewish interest in Leningrad, based on his research of old documents, in a photo obtained by the Student Struggle For Soviet Jewry. Under intense KGB pressure, these tours have presently stopped, but Beizer continues to publish his findings in Leningrad Almanac, the city's samizdat Jewish periodical. Palestine National Council (PNC). He asserted that contrary to press reports, several Israeli political figures who met with PLO representatives abroad in recent years, were indeed brought to trial. It is not yet known whether legal action will be taken against years' imprisonment. Darousha.

TEL AVIV (WNS) — An IDF soldier wounded in Lebanon two weeks ago, died on November 26 becoming the 603rd IDF fatality in Lebanon since Israel invaded that country on June, 1982. He was identified as Sgt. Yehuda Cohen, 40 years old. His patrol was ambushed near Jimshit village on the eastern sector of the front close to Syrian lines.

Israelis Warned Against Contacts With PLO

JERUSALEM (WNS) — Attorney-General Yitzhak Zamir has served notice that any Knesset member who tries to enter an enemy country or meet with members of the PLO would be subject to criminal proceedings initiated by the State.

Zamir's opinion was seen first as a direct warning to Abdul Wahab Darousha, an Arab Labor Party MK, who left Israel in an unsuccessful attempt to reach Amman, Jordan, where he had hoped to address the meeting of the PLO-convened
