

San Antonio Woman Wins $275,000 Slot Jackpot At Imperial Palace

Imperial Palace jackpot winner Lucille Mortellaro of San Antonio, Texas, accepts a check for $275,000 and the keys to a 1941 Lincoln Zephyr from Pat Minchey, Slot Manager at the Las Vegas casino.

LUCILLE MORTELLARO of San Antonio, Texas, put three dollar tokens in a five-reel slot machine at the Imperial Palace and pulled the handle, lining up five red 7's and taking home the largest slot jackpot ever at the casino: $275,000 plus a 1941 Lincoln Zephyr from the Imperial Palace Antique and Classic Auto Collection.

"I hadn't even sat down!" she said. "Those were the first three dollars I put in that machine." She estimated she had "invested" about $100 in the slot machines at the Imperial Palace that morning but all at another slot carousel.

Mrs. Mortellaro, who owns a wholesale nursery business in San Antonio, was in Las Vegas with her sister-in-law and nephew. The three were all guests at the Imperial Palace over the Thanksgiving holiday weekend. While Mrs. Mortellaro posed for photos with a huge mock-up of her $275,000 check, her nephew phoned her daughter in Texas with the good news.

"I had to have him call," she said. "I was too excited to dial a phone."

Their travel plans would not be altered by her windfall, she said. "We came on an economy flight and we'll go home the same way!"
