Holtzman Reports Paraguay To Conduct Hunt For Mengele

NEW YORK (WNS) — Paraguay has begun what was described as a thorough nationwide investigation to locate Josef Mengele, the infamous war criminal and chief doctor at the Auschwitz concentration camp responsible for the murder of tens of thousands of Jews during World War II.

The investigation will be conducted by police authorities in Paraguay under the Ministry of Interior, according to Elizabeth Holtzman, Brooklyn District Attorney, who returned from a three-day visit to Paraguay as a member of a delegation of four persons who travelled there under the sponsorship of the International Children of Jewish Holocaust Survivors.

Furthermore, Holtzman told reporters November 26, Paraguayan officials have also agreed to allow foreign observers to monitor the investigation and will allow for written questions to be submitted to the government about the whereabouts of Mengele, who is believed to be living in Paraguay. Holtzman said she has contacted the Justice Department's Office of Special Investigations on the matter of observers to the investigation.

Holtzman, who was instrumental as a member of Congress in the establishment of the OSI, was flanked at the news conference by the other members of the delegation: Menecham Rosensaft, founding chairman of the International Network of Children of Jewish Holocaust Survivors; Beate Klarsfeld, who has brought a number of Nazi war criminals to justice; and Bishop Rene Valero of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Brooklyn.

During the delegation's stay in Paraguay, they met with Justice and Labor Minister J. Eugenio Jacquet, Supreme Court President Luis Maria Argana and Interior Minister Sabino Monyanaro. They did not meet with President Alfredo Stroessner, although a meeting had been requested.
