Ceausescu Invites Peres To Bucharest

JERUSALEM (WNS) — President Nicolae Ceausescu of Rumania has invited Premier Shimon Peres to Bucharest for "urgent talks," Peres informed the Knesset's Foreign Affairs and Security Committee, recently.

The Premier said he had replied to Ceausescu that he wanted to go to Rumania but could not leave Israel at this time. Peres is anxious not to be away as long as the economic crisis remains urgent. Nevertheless, he is expected to go to Bucharest early next year.

Marriott & Volcker Receive Awards

J. W. Marriott, Jr., (left), head of the Marriott Corporation, and Paul A. Volcker, chairman of the Federal Reserve System, receive Appeal of Conscience Foundation "Man of Conscience" awards -- Steuben crystal stars -- from Rabbi Arthur Schneier, Foundation president, as New York Mayor Koch looks on. The awards were presented at the Foundation's recent annual dinner at the Hotel Pierre in New York before an audience of 500 religious and business leaders and high-ranking diplomats. The Appeal of Conscience Foundation was established in 1965. It is a coalition of religious and business leaders of all major faiths concerned with religious freedom for all denominations throughout the world.

It is recalled here that the Rumanian President met separately in the fall of 1977 with President Anwar Sadat of Egypt and Israeli Premier Menachem Begin. His intervention is believed to have helped pave the way for Sadat's historic trip to Jerusalem in November, 1977.
