

Caesars Palace Bubbling With New Year's Eve Fun

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA — Caesars Palace in Las Vegas will bubble with New Year's Eve excitement when George Burns and Diahann Carroll lead the countdown to 1985 in the Circus Maximus Showroom.

The celebration will begin at 8:30 p.m. with a fabulous gourmet dinner to include Seafood Neptune, Tenderloin of Beef Henry IV and much more. To toast the New Year, guests will enjoy a split of Moet et Chandon champagne, with party favors close at hand.

On stage at 10:30, glamorous Diahann Carroll will showcase the singing and dramatic talent which inspired the great Richard Rogers to create the Broadway production of "No Strings" as a starring vehicle for her. Tony award-winner, Oscar nominee, star of her own Emmy-nominated show and twice named among the Ten Internationally Best Dressed Women, she most recently joined the cast of TV's "Dynasty." She stars as Dominique Devereaux on that series.

The legendary George Burns will surely have lots to say about the passage of time as he welcomes the New Year. Fully active in film, TV, stage, books and records, he is still one of the funniest men in America. His recently released movie, "Oh God, You Devil," filmed at Caesars Palace, his popular new book Dr. Burns' Prescription for Happiness and his success as a Caesars Palace headliner are proof that he's too busy to slow down.

The price of $85 per person includes dinner, show, champagne and party favors. For reservations, phone the Caesars Palace Circus Maximus Showroom at (702) 731-7333 or (800) 634-6001 (outside Nevada, within the United States).

Shirley MacLaine Sparkles At The MGM Dec. 27-Jan. 2

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA — The MGM Grand Hotel will ring in the New Year with terms of endearment and America's hottest talent, SHIRLEY MACLAINE, in the beautiful Celebrity Room.

The winner of this year's Academy Award and one of the most multi-talented performers in show business, Shirley MacLaine will present her much-lauded production in a special New Year's Show that will include dinner, noisemakers, hats etc. for a price of $75 a person, including tax and tip.

Seating will begin at 7:45 in the Celebrity, and advance reservations are urgently requested.

Miss MacLaine actually will be at the Grand all the way from Dec. 27 through Jan. 2.

New Year's Eve in the "Grand" tradition will offer a cornucopia of delights. In addition to Miss MacLaine, visitors and guests of the Grand will also have the choice of Donn Arden's $10 million superspectacular "JUBILEE!" presented twice that night in the Ziegfeld Room -- or BOB CROSBY AND HIS ORCHESTRA plus FANTASIA in the Grand Ballroom.

The early "Jubilee!" show, with seating beginning at 7:45, will include dinner, show, noisemakers and hats at the price of $75 a person, including tax and tip, and again reservations are suggested.

The Special Performance late show, with seating beginning at 1 a.m., will include show and cocktails at $25 a person, including tax and tip.

Shirley MacLaine's show will start at 10 p.m., as will the early show of "Jubilee!" The second "Jubilee!" show will start at 2 a.m.

Seating in the Grand Ballroom will start at 8 p.m. and dinner will be at 9 p.m.

Bob Crosby and His Orchestra in the Grand Ballroom will make a Champagne Dinner Dance, and the price will include the dance, dinner, champagne, noisemakers and hats, tax and tip. Reservations required.

In addition to the special celebrations, visitors and guests also can enjoy New Year's in any one of the four gourmet restaurants -- Gigis (French), Caruso's (Italian), Barrymores (American) or Tracy's (Chinese).
