The Las Vegas Rescue Mission will be serving a traditional Christmas Dinner at 3:30 P.M. on Christmas Eve to the homeless and needy people of this city, due to the fact that other service organizations will be serving their dinners on Christmas Day. However, we will be serving our regular evening meal at 5:30 P.M. on Christmas Day. Items needed for the dinner are turkeys, coffee, and vegetables. Also needed for Christmas gifts are socks, combs, toothbrushes, toothpaste, hankchiefs for men and women. Razors and shaving cream for men.

Reno, Nv. - Judge Addeliar Dell Guy of the District Court in Las Vegas, Nevada, has received a certificate of completion at the conclusion of the new introduction to Computers and Technology in Courts specialty session, held at The National Judicial College on the campus of the University of Nevada-Reno. Judge Guy has completed 8 courses at The National Judicial College.

Designed for judges and court administrators who lack prior knowledge of computers and their software, the program examined how modern technology can creatively be used to the advantage of a court.

Participants were assisted in developing implementation plans for selecting and installing an automated system in their own courts.

The session, presented for the first time, attracted 35 participants from 15 states including 3 administrative law judges, and from the Virgin Islands 2 court personnel and 1 judge.

The faculty coordinator was computer consultant Joe Jordan of San Rafael, California, who has implemented computer systems for courts across the country.

The leading career education and training institution in the nation, The National Judicial College is affiliated with the American Bar Association.

The City of Las Vegas Cultural and Community Affairs Division will present three performances of the British American Theatre Institute's 1985 touring production of Harold Pinter's Betrayal which will be performed by members of the Redgrave Theatre of Great Britain. The company members will be in residency January 14th through the 19th and will conduct a week of classes and will also be involved in the three-part lecture series on Harold Pinter.

Betrayal will be performed on January 17, 18, and 19 at 8:30 p.m. in the Charleston Heights Arts Center, 800 South Brush. Ticket prices are $7.00 general admission and $5.00 for students, senior citizens and handicapped.
