

Wilner Honored By National Directors Body

the association's First Honorary Life Membership ever conferred upon a retired Temple Administrator. In addition to a special Certificate of Distinction attesting to the award, Leo also received a beautiful silver covered Passover Hagadah as a reminder of the auspicious occasion.

Leo retired as the Executive Director of Temple Beth Sholom this past May 31st, and was awarded the Honorary Title of Emeritus by the Temple Board of Directors. He had served in his position for 18-1/2 years, since January 1, 1966, and performed his myriad duties with dignity and dedication, adding strength and stature to the ever-growing Jewish population in our city.

THE ISRAELITE, which welcomed him in the beginning and predicted a brilliant career, is now extremely happy to join Leo's legion of friends in expressing a hearty mazel tov and congratulations on the occasion of this well deserved tribute, and extends best wishes to him, his lovely wife, Mickey, and the entire Wilner family.

Leo A. Wilner, recently retired Executive Director of Temple Beth Sholom, was honored by his peers, the members of the National Association of Synagogue Administrators of United Synagogue of America, the conservative arm of Judaism.

The notable event took place last month in Philadelphia, Pa., at the annual convention of this distinguished group, where Leo was granted
