

Don Palmer Presents His 24th Semiannual Art Show
At The Boulevard Mall

Concord California, artist Don Jordan constructing one of his metal-sculptured clowns at The Boulevard Mall's art show last January. Jordan will be back building more clowns at The Boulevard, Monday through Sunday, January 14-20.

Fifty professional artists from 12 U.S. states have been selected to bring their art and show at The Boulevard Mall, Maryland Parkway at Desert Inn, in Las Vegas. The show will run for 7 days, Monday through Sunday, January 14-20.

These artists will show about 2,000 pieces of their original works of art - oil paintings, graphics, sculptured fountains, etchings, watercolors, bronze castings, pottery, woodcarvings and metal sculpture.

Several of the artists will bring their paints and brushes, or acetelyene torches and paint or sculpt during the show.

"This show attracts some of the finest artists," Show Director Don Palmer says. "And every exhibit in the show is different. There's something to suit everyone's taste."

Show hours will be: 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Friday; 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday; and noon to 5 p.m. Sunday.

Near the center of The Boulevard Mall you will see Nevada artist Leigh Hoganson stroking out watercolors of the Nevada desert.

Hoganson, a quadriplegic, holds his paint brushes in his teeth.

Israel Suffers
604th Fatality
In Lebanon

TEL AVIV (WNS) — A 19-year-old Israeli soldier was killed in an exchange of fire with terrorists near Nabatiya in south Lebanon, a military spokesman announced. He was the 604th fatality sustained by the Israel Defense Force since the Lebanon war began in 1982.

The spokesman identified the dead soldier as Eitan Avrahami from the Golan Heights village of Katzrin.
