

Imprisoned

Unofficial Moscow teacher of Judaism Yuli Edelstein, shown shortly before his arrest with his wife Tatyana in front of a homemade Hebrew grammar chart, was recently sentenced to three years on false "drug possession" charges. According to the Student Struggle for Soviet Jewry, which received the photo from the Soviet Jewry Education and Information Center in Jerusalem, the libel against Edelstein precipitated a wave of KGB confiscations of Jewish material from the homes of fellow Jewish educators in the USSR. CHICAGO (WNS) — The Jewish United Fund (JUF), Chicago's major Jewish philanthropy, has sent 24 million to Israel expressly for the purpose of resettling Ethiopian Jews and will continue to send additional millions this year for resettlement and other humanitarian programs in the Jewish homeland, it was announced.
