

Chabad Lubavitch Prints Historic Tanya In Las Vegas

Mordechai Yerushalmi Underwrites Cost Of Publishing

The Lubavitcher Rebbe Menachem Mendel Schneerson has requested that the printing of "Tanyas," the original work of the Chassidic movement, be done in as many cities as possible. Taking up this directive, Chabad brought the special Hebrew plates to Las Vegas to be printed.

Recently, after Shachrit services, Rabbi Moshe Leider of Chabad San Diego, presented the completed books to Congregation Shaarei Tefilla, the Orthodox Synagogue, at which time Rabbi Leider gave a class in Tanya.

The Tanya was written by Rabbi Shneur Zalman, the first Chabad leader. It is the basic Chassidic Philosophy, including works of the Talmud and the Kabbalah, which is accepted among all Hassidim around the world.

Also shown is Jack Super, far left, President of Congregation Shaarei Tefilla, accepting the books on behalf of the Orthodox Synagogue. The cost of the entire project was underwritten by local jeweler, Mordechai Yerushalmi. Mordechai was presented with one of the books and one was sent to Rabbi Menachem Mendel Schneerson, the Lubavitcher Rebbe at Chabad headquarters in Brooklyn, New York.

Israel, Guinea Reported Moving Toward Rapprochement

PARIS (WNS) — Israel and Guinea, once the most anti-Israel country in Africa, are moving toward rapprochement and have already exchanged military missions, the Paris-based weekly Jeune Afrique reported.

According to the publication, which is considered very reliable, an Israeli military mission visited

Conakry, capital of the West African state, in January and Guinea soldiers have gone to Israel for paratroop and commando training.

The weekly said the rapprochement was initiated by the late President Sekou Toure of Guinea who, in 1967, was the first African leader to break off diplomatic relations with Israel.
