

ACTING FOR FREEDOM

(L-R) Rabbis Charles Klein, Avraham Weiss and Allan Meyerowitz, wearing tallesim, are surrounded by police after they and three rabbinic colleagues were arrested for staging a sit-in "of prayer and protest" at the Rockefeller Center offices of Tass, the Soviet news agency, in New York City. The action focused on the desperate plights of Prisoner of Conscience Anatoly Scharansky, the jailed unofficial teachers of Judaism in Russia, and the hundreds of thousands of Soviet Jews denied emigration. Rabbi Weiss is also chairman of the Student Struggle for Soviet Jewry. PHOTO BY STUDENT STRUGGLE FOR SOVIET JEWRY, 210 West 91st Street, New York, N. Y. 10024, (212) 799-8900.

Soviets Reject An Israeli Proposal

JERUSALEM (WNS) — Israel proposed to the Soviet Union that the two countries resume cooperation on the occasion of the 40th anniversary of the defeat of Nazi Germany this year. But the idea was flatly rejected by the USSR. Premier Shimon Peres told a meeting of high school students. The Soviets broke diplomatic relations with Israel in 1967.

Peres said Israel's message was conveyed to the Kremlin by Armond Hammer, the American oil magnate who is well connected in Moscow through his extensive business dealings with the Russians. The reply was that a development such as was suggested by Israel would depend on relations between the Soviet Union and the U.S.
