

Super Sunday 1985 Nets $23.1 Million

NEW YORK (WNS) — With the largest amount ever raised for Jewish charitable purposes in a single day — more than $15.1 million — total pledges to date for Super Sunday 1985, the United Jewish Appeal's fifth annual telephone marathon, have exceeded $23.1 million in 96 communities, according to Sanford Hollander, UJA Super Sunday national chairman.

"But we're only just beginning," Hollander pointed out. "Twenty-one communities held their Super Sundays before the national date, raising more than $8 million, and 51 more — including such major communities as Atlanta, Cleveland, Dallas, Houston, Los Angeles, Pittsburg and San Francisco — will conduct their Super Sundays in the weeks and months ahead."

On January 27, the Super Sunday national date, some 17,400 volunteers in 75 communities obtained the record-breaking sum of $15,105,948 in pledges for the 1985 Regular Campaign. "This represents a 21.4 percent increase over pledges by the same donor last year," said Hollander, a UJA national vice chairman. "In dollars, last Sunday's phonathon achievement was more than $1.6 million ahead of the results on the Super Sunday '84 national date."

Skate For Safety

KVBC T.V. 3 news on-air personalities will help local skaters and the Las Vegas Board of Realtors raise money for SAFETY THROUGH SONGS, a program designed to teach first grade children in Clark County safety protection techniques.

KVBC T.V. 3 reports Ricci Cheese, Elaine Tack, and Dan Burns will skate in the Skate-A-Thon on February 10th from 11:00 A.M. until 5:00 P.M. at all Playland skating rinks.

Pledge forms can be picked up at your local Wendy's, Las Vegas Board of Realtors office, or Playland Skating rink. Participants are encouraged to get as many pledges as possible because prizes will be given away for the most pledges raised.

Safety Through Songs was introduced to the first graders in 1984 with an overwhelming response. More than 5000 students received the presentation which included a safety film strip, book and record.

For more information about the Skate-A-Thon contact the L.V. Board of Realtors, 732-8177.

A Whale Watching Cruise will be conducted by the Charleston Heights Community School on Saturday, February 9. The bus will leave at approximately 5 a.m. and return by 11:30 p.m. The Catalina Cruises' triple deck boat will be used for this 3 hour trip. There is a fee of $45 and Judy Schroeder will be tour leader.

This program is sponsored by the City of Las Vegas' Department of Parks, Recreation & Sr. Citizen Activities. For more information, please call the school at 878-8644.
