Nate Mack Las Vegas B'nai B'rith Lodge #2825 will assist in Friday night services at Temple Ner Tamid on March 15, 1985 at 8 P.M. Nate Mack Lodge appeals to all B'nai B'rith members to attend especially that evening. It is especially heart warming to see a full Temple, honoring our G-d and enjoying the services. Look for and partake of an especially interesting Oneg Shabbat.

What is B'nai B'rith? B'nai B'rith is the largest, most representative membership of concerned Jews in modern life. B'nai B'rith answers to the needs of our times. Its concern for our people and all peoples has been worldwide. From B'BYO it is an automatic step into B'nai B'rith. With its charitable works, its interest in all Government proceedings, its arm of ADL protecting the rights of Jews has made it a most caring organization. The fight for Soviet Jewry is never ending. The movement of Ethiopian Jews into Palestine was done quickly and will not cease until all of our people are living in our homeland. When you read this and if you are not a member of B'nai B'rith remember it is your duty, your solemn obligation as a Jew to join B'nai B'rith. Why is it in times of stress that we Jews band together and otherwise we drift apart. We are living in dangerous times and now is the need for closing our ranks and become one in deed and spirit. I urge you to telephone David Cohen and tell him forcefully that you want to join B'nai B'rith. Phone him now at 458-3428.

The Las Vegas Council A.Z.A. will be holding its 13th annual Queen Esther Ball on March 23rd at Temple Beth Shalom, 1600 East Oakey Blvd. The open dance will begin at 7:00 P.M. Tickets are $3.00 singles, $5.00 for couples. For more information, call 451-6647.
