A festive PURIM party during services on Friday March 8th highlighted Temple Beth Am services to an overflowing attendance of more than one hundred members and their families and friends. Rabbi Mel Hecht and Queen Esther in traditional PURIM costumes as well as many children of the members entertained the Congregation. It was an enjoyable evening and ended with a lovely Oneg Shabbat. Services are each Friday night at the Dunes Hotel, 8 P.M., in the South Tower.

Temple Beth Am will hold Passover services at the Dunes Hotel on April 5th, 1985. For the past several years Rabbi Mel Hecht has been magnificent in holding the traditional Services to the complete satisfaction of all attending. Many requests have been received and it is urgently suggested that if you want to have a very fine most enjoyable evening observing and imparting of the delicious food that only the Dunes Hotel can serve, please phone Rabbi Hecht at 645-6624 and reserve your table. Tickets for members are $25.00; for non-members, $30.00 and for children to age twelve or so, one half price. Those of us who have attended Rabbi Hecht's previous Passover dinners know how delightful and enjoyable they were, and each year our Rabbi becomes better and better like fine wine.

Temple Beth Am wants to thank the more than 250 people that attended the dinner theatre party of the showing of "Fiddler on the Roof" at the Union Plaza Hotel on March 16th. It was most gratifying that the first fund raiser of Temple Beth Am was a huge success. Through the hard and diligent efforts of Rabbi Hecht, Robert Dobbs and President Steve Stein the evening was most pleasant and the turnout had a wonderful dinner and saw one of the great live shows of this century.
