UNLV Receives Special United Way Award

Dr. Robert Maxson (L) displays UNLV's "Community Spirit Award" presented by Mark Smith (R) 1984 United Way Campaign Chairman.

Mark Smith, 1984 Campaign Chairman, presented Dr. Robert Maxson, University of Nevada Las Vegas President, with the first "Community Spirit Award" for the university's outstanding participation in the 1984 United Way Campaign.

The award was the first time nationally that the unique Jade Crystal Plaque was presented to an organization that demonstrated exceptional support of the annual Fall fundraiser.

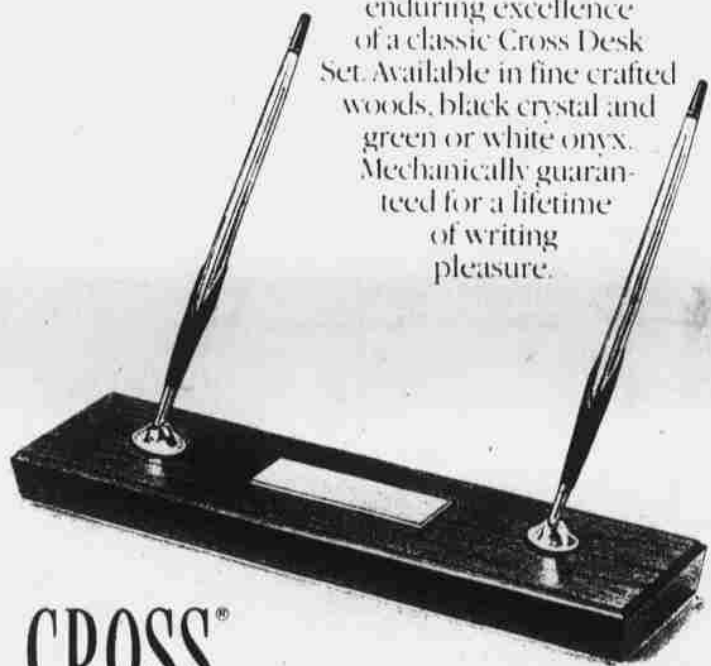

University of Nevada Las Vegas was the site of the United Way "Campaign Kick Off" by hosting a barbecue luncheon on the campus commons and presenting "United Way Family Night" at the Silver Bowl during the Wichita State/UNLV football game. In addition, UNLV's Thomas & Mack Center was utilized for the Las Vegas Americans-United Way Benefit Game sponsored by CENTEL which saw $15,500 raised for community services. Also the university conducted a pledge drive that yielded a $12,044 total from faculty and staff members.

Dr. Maxson said upon receiving the special tribute, "The university has maintained a long history of supporting the United Way concept and will always continue to do so. We are honored to receive this award as part of our ongoing commitment to serving the community which has been so generous to us."

The Jade Crystal Award was specially developed by United Way of America expressly for the recognition of voluntarism. United Way of Southern Nevada was selected to have the opportunity to confer this award out of 2,200 local United Way chapters across the United States.

Slot Winner

Ms. Angie Bauer, a tourist from Santa Ana, California, was a big winner at the New Landmark Hotel & Casino.

On Friday evening, April 19, Ms. Bauer, seen here receiving her winnings from Landmark change girl, Bev Cockrum, dropped three quarters into the New Landmark's "Mississippi Gambler" twenty-five progressive slot machine.

A few seconds later, four 7's lined up on the bottom line for the Super Progressive Jackpot, for a total of $19,407 dollars.

Watching the payoff is Shift Manager, Ron Sanguryria and Assistant Shift Manager, Jim Mouer.

It was the second "Jackpot" win on the New Landmark Hotel slot machines in less than a week. The previous Monday, an anonymous customer hit all 7's on the New Landmark's "Van" machines. Instead of taking the customized van, he decided to take the $15,000 dollar cash prize.

Hausner Says Reagan Handing Hitler Posthumous Victory

TEL AVIV (WNS) — Gideon Hausner, the man who prosecuted Adolf Eichmann, declared that by visiting a German war cemetery, where SS killers are buried, President Reagan is handing Hitler a posthumous victory.

Visiting a Nazi concentration camp site on the same trip cannot compensate or balance that "appalling act," Hausner said in a radio interview. "This would be, in our view, a victory of Hitler from beyond his grave and a desecration of the memory of his Jewish victims," Hausner said. "It is an irony of fate that while the American machinery of justice is dealing with the extradition of Demjanjuk as a war criminal, the President of the United States will pay tribute to the comrades in the army of this war criminal who are buried in that German war cemetery."

Hausner was referring to John Demjanjuk, a Ukrainian-born war criminal who operated the gas chambers at Treblinka. Demjanjuk, who entered the United States after the war by lying about his Nazi past and was naturalized, has been stripped of his U.S. citizenship and presently faces extradition to Israel to stand trial for the murder of Jews.
